That whenever a certain Bill is appointed for Tuesday the House do meet at Three o'clock and the proceedings on the Bill do have precedence of the Notices of Motion and the other Orders of the Day, and that the said Bill do have precedence on Wednesday whenever it is appointed for that day; [1897]; CXLIV. 38.

22. That the several stages of a particular Bill have precedence of all Orders of the Day, &c.; [1898]; CLIII. 88.

23. That the Proceedings on the Address have precedence this day and in-marrow of the Notices of Motion and other Orders of the Day; [1898]; CLIV. 48, 53.

24. That the Proceedings on a particular Bill have precedence this day of the Notices of Motion and all Orders of the Day; [1899]; CLIV. 245.

25. That after this day the several stages of particular Bills have precedence of all Orders of the Day and Notices of Motion on every day for which the Bills or either of them are appointed after various Amendments proposed and not made; [1899]; CLIV. 151.

III. Motions Withdrawn:

Business of the House (Strangers during Divisions): 28. [1895.] That Standing Order No. 52 (Withdrawal of Strangers during Divisions) be read, and rescinded; withdrawn; CL. 70.

Colonies (Representation in the Imperial Parliament): 29. [1900.] That, in the opinion of this House, it is desirable, in the interests of the Empire, that the Colonies should be admitted to some direct representation in the Imperial Parliament; withdrawn; CLV. 128.

County Councils: 30. [1900.] That it is desirable the provision made by Section 10 of the Local Government Act, 1888, for the transfer to County Councils and Joint Committees of County Councils of powers now vested in certain Government Departments should be put into operation forthwith; and, inasmuch as the Welsh County Councils are unanimously desirous of obtaining such increased powers, and the obstacles opposed by the non-county boroughs in England to the effecting of such a transfer are not raised by the non-county boroughs of Wales; that it is expedient that such a transfer should first of all be made in Wales; withdrawn; CLV. 180.

Education and Local Taxation (Scotland) (Distribution of Grant): 31. [1893-94.] That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her to withhold Her Assent to a Minute of the Scotch Education Department, dated the 31st day of January 1893, providing for the Distribution of the Sum available for Secondary Education under Section 2 (1) (b) of "The Education and Local Taxation Acrorns (Scotland) Act, 1892"; withdrawn; CXLVIII. 91.

Education Code: 32. [1898.] That it is desirable to assimilate the provisions of the English Education Code as regards class and special subjects to those in the Scotch Code of 1892; withdrawn; CLIII. 102.

Scotch Education Code, 1895: 33. [1895.] That an Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty that Sections iii. and iv. of Part II. of the Scotch Education Act, 1895, may be withdrawn, &c.; withdrawn; CL. 186.

Imperial Telegraphic Communication: 34. [1900.] That it is desirable that inquiry should be held into the commercial and strategic defects of Imperial Telegraphic Communication; withdrawn; CLV. 215.

Judicature Acts: 35. [1897.] That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her to appoint a Royal Commission to inquire into the Administration of Justice under the Judicature Acts, with a view to secure greater efficiency and economy; withdrawn; CL. 80.

London Government (Borough of Hammersmith Order in Council): 36. [1900.] That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to withhold Her Assent to the Draft Order in Council of the 13th day of March 1900, for the establishment of the Metropolitan Borough of Hammersmith, the incorporation thereof, and for other purposes connected therewith, unless amendments are made therein, &c.; and withdrawn; CLV. 144.

London Government (Borough of Islington Order in Council): 37. [1900.] That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to withhold Her Assent to the Draft Order in Council of the 13th day of March 1900, for the establishment of the Metropolitan Borough of Islington, the incorporation thereof, and for other purposes connected therewith, unless amendments are made therein, &c.; and withdrawn; CLV. 144.

Piers and Harbours: 38. [1899.] That, in the opinion of this House, in the interests of trade and communication by sea between places on the coasts, and with a view to the protection and development of sea fisheries and the safety of the persons engaged in them, it is desirable that the Government should take immediate steps to extend the existing provisions of Piers and Harbours by cheapening and facilitating the acquisition of powers to construct or improve Piers and Harbours in the United Kingdom, and to aid where necessary such works by grants of public money; withdrawn; CLIV. 68.

Plumbers Registration: 39. [1900.] That it is desirable that the Government should introduce Legislation dealing with the National Registration of Plumbers, and create a Scheme for that purpose; withdrawn; CLV. 167.

Post Office
III. Motions Withdrawn:

Post Office Nominations:

40. [1892.] That, in the opinion of this House, it is expedient that Post Office Nominations, which are now made by the Treasury on the recommendation of Members of Parliament and others, should in future be made to the Postmaster General by local representative bodies; Amendment proposed, and made; Main Question, as amended, proposed; Motion withdrawn; CL 48. See also Resolutions.

Representation of Constituencies Disparities:

41. [1892-94.] That there exist serious disparities in the representation in Parliament of the people of the United Kingdom; that those disparities are of such a nature and extent as to involve the danger of the will of the Nation being misrepresented and possibly controne by the decisions of the House of Commons, as at present constituted; and that therefore such disparities should forthwith be examined into by an impartial Committee or Commission, and remedied, and a proposed Amendment hereto; CXLVIII. 77.

Soldiers and Sailors (Civil Departments):

42. [1896.] That the failure of successive Administrations to give employment in Civil Departments to reservc or time-expired soldiers and sailors of good character is contrary to public policy, and detrimental to the interests of the Service, and that this House calls upon Her Majesty's Government to make larger provision for the employment of such persons, by allotting to them preferentially such posts in the Public Service as they are competent to fill; and a Debate arising thereon, Motion chime, "That the Question be now put;" but Mr. Speaker withheld his assent, because he thought the House was prepared to move to a decision without that Motion; and the said Motion was, with leave of the House, withdrawn; CLI. 102. See also Resolutions.

Standing Orders (London County Council):

43. [1890-91.] That all Bills presented by the London County Council, containing power to raise money, shall be introduced as Public Bills; but after being read a second time by the House shall be referred to a Select Committee to be nominated by the Committee of Selection in like manner as Private Bills;

IV. Motions Adjourned, and not proceeded with:

Belfast Corporation (Lunatic Asylums, &c.) Bill:

45. [1892.] That it be an Instruction to the Committee to insert in the Bill Clauses re-arranging the existing division of the City of Belfast into Wards, so as to make it possible for all classes of its Inhabitants to obtain representation in the Town Council; Debate adjourned; CXLVII. 70.

John Daly:

46. [1895.] That there be laid before this House a Certified Copy of the Conviction, Judgment, and Sentence in the case of the Queen against John Daly, tried at the Assizes and General Delivery of the Goal of our Lady the Queen, held at Warwick on the 20th of July 1894; also a Certificate from the Governor of Portland Prison, that the said John Daly is still imprisoned under the said Sentence; and Question, on Division, resolved in the Affirmative; Papers procured accordingly, and Day appointed for consideration, and Papers to be printed, after Motion for Adjournment of Debate withdrawn; CL 345.

Financial Relations (England and Ireland):

47. [1897.] That in the opinion of this House, the Reports and Proceedings of the Royal Commission on the Financial Relations of Great Britain and Ireland establish the existence of an undue burden of Taxation on Ireland, which constitutes a great grievance to all classes of the Irish community, and makes it the duty of the Government to propose at

But this Order shall not apply to a Bill passed by the London County Council for the borrowing of money, which complies with the following conditions:

(1) If it authorises the borrowing and expenditure for the purposes mentioned in the Bill of the sum shown by the estimates therein to be required for each such purpose, that purpose being the execution of a power conferred or extended either by the Bill or by some public, local, or personal Act.

Provided that the Bill may authorise the borrowing and expenditure for any purpose not mentioned in the Bill, or for any purpose for which estimates are not recited in the preamble, if it fixes a maximum aggregate sum to be so borrowed, and requires every such borrowing to be sanctioned by the Local Government Board;

(2) If it is so framed as not to authorise the borrowing and expenditure of any money after the financial period, that is to say, the period ending on the 30th day of September next after the expiration of the then current financial year of the Council;

(3) If it is so framed as to provide for the money borrowed being repaid, whether by the creation of a sinking fund, or the redemption of stock, or otherwise, within such period not exceeding sixty years, as the Committee on the Bill, or if the borrowing is sanctioned by the Local Government Board, that Board may consider proper, having regard to the objects for which the money is to be borrowed;

(4) If in the case of any Bill conferring or extending any power involving the expenditure of money after the financial period, the said estimate shows the total amount of money required for the execution of the power as well as the particular amount to be borrowed and expended during the financial period. Withdrawn; CXLVI. 225.

Taxation (London) [Grants in Aid] :

44. [1897.] Motion, That in the opinion of this House, it is desirable that a Select Committee be appointed to consider whether the amount annually received by London under Grants in Aid bears a just proportion to the amount contributed by London to the General Taxes of the Nation. Withdrawn; CLIII. 133.

Kitchen and Refreshment Rooms (House of Commons) Expenses:

55. [1894.] That there be laid before this House a Return showing detailed Receipts and Expenditure of Kitchen Committee for the years ending the 31st day of December 1890, 1891, 1892, and 1893; Debate adjourned at Midnight; CXLIX. 129. Further adjourned, 132, 174.

London Theatres:

50. [1899.] That this House regrets the growing tendency to put upon the Stage Plays of a demoralising character, and consider that a stricter supervision of theatrical performances is needed alike in the interests of the public and the theatrical profession; at Midnight Mr. Speaker interrupted the business; Clauses omitted, but Mr. Speaker withheld his assent; Debate adjourned; CLV. 197. No day fixed for resumption.

50. [1900.] Motion for the adjournment of the Debate lapsed at Midnight on Second Reading of a Bill; CLV. 312.

GEN. INDEX. CXLVI.—CLV. (1890-91.—1900.) 4 B
V. Questions Negatived on Motions:

City of London Parochial Charities Act, 1883 (Central Scheme):

51. [1890-91.] That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to withhold Her Consent from the Scheme of the Charity Commission now before the House for the Management of the Charities comprised in Statements VI. (1) to (15), VII, and VIII. under the above Act; Amendment proposed; by, on Division, not made; and Main Question negatived; CXLVI. 43.

Secretary for Mines:

52. [1890-91.] That, in the opinion of this House, it is desirable to create a Department to have the control and supervision of the Mining Industries of the Country, to be controlled by a Minister of the Crown, such Minister to be called the Secretary for Mines; and Questions, on Division, negatived; CXLVI. 45.

Educational Endowments (Ireland) Act, 1885 (Gillon Schools):

53. [1890-91.] That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her to withhold Her Consent from a Scheme for the Management of the Gillon Schools, Oldeby, County Meath, provisionally approved by the Lords Justices in Council on the 13th November 1890, unless provision be made in the Scheme for the Representation of the Board of Guardians of the Oldmeby Union upon the Governing Body of the said Schools; on Division, negatived; CXLVI. 167.

Educational Code (Scotland) 1891:

54. [1890-91.] That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty that the Minute of the Committee of Council on Education in Scotland, dated the 11th May 1891, be amended by substituting the word "three" for the word "five," and the word "fifteen" for the word "fourteen"; on Division, negatived; CXLVI. 432.

County Courts Jurisdiction:

55. [1890.] That, in the opinion of this House, the time has arrived when Her Majesty's Government may reasonably be expected to institute or facilitate legislation having for its object a considerable extension of the ordinary Jurisdiction of County Courts in Common Law, Equity, and Admiralty Causes; negatived, on Division; CXLVI. 88.

Derby Day:

56. [1896.] That this House, at its rising, do adjourn till Thursday; negatived, on Division; CL. 147.

East India (Civil Service Appointments):

57. [1892.] That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty that She will give directions for the immediate appointment of Mr. Charles Ley, to the two of the Colonial Assistant Secretaries in the Colonial Secretary's Department; negatived, on Division; CXLVI. 48.

East India (Officers of General List):

58. [1897.] That a Select Committee be appointed to inquire into the grievances of the Officers on the General List of the Indian Army in the matter of their succession to Colonel's Allowances, and to report to the House thereon; negatived, on Division; CXLVI. 166.

East India (Expenditure on the Frontier War):

59. [1898.] That, in the opinion of this House, the expenditure involved in the recent operations beyond the frontier of India ought not to be charged entirely upon the revenues of India; negatived, on Division; CXLVI. 55.

Education Code, 1894:

60. [1894.] That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her to direct that the New Education Code of 1894 be amended; negatived; CXLIX. 82.

Endowed Schools Act (Sir John Cass' Charity):

61. [1895.] That an Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to withhold Her Assent from the Scheme, &c., and Question, on Division, negatived; CL. 97.

British South Africa:

62. [1897.] That this House regrets the inconsiderate action and Report of the Select Committee on British South Africa, and especially the failure of that Committee to recommend specific steps with regard to Mr. Rhodes, and to immedi-

Evening Continuation Schools Code, 1894:

63. [1894.] That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying that She will direct the New Code of Regulations for Evening Continuation Schools to be amended in the following particulars, namely—Page 10 (Assessment of Workmen), leave out "2. Working Men's Cooperative Societies, their work in distribution and production." Page 17, leave out "the services rendered by retail shopkeepers, merchants, manufact-

Education Department Code of Regulations for Day School (Article 59):

65. [1896.] That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying that She will cause the Evening Continuation Schools Code to be amended in the following particulars:—(1.) Only one marking of the registers of attendance to be required during one session of the school; (2.) In Article 13 the arrangement of a fixed grant plus variable grants to be replaced by one grant, and that a fixed one; and (5.) The drawing to be inspected and tested in like manner to the other subjects of the Code; negatived, on Division; CXLVI. 106.

Primary Education (England and Wales):

66. [1898.] That, in the opinion of this House, the system of Primary Education in England and Wales inflicts upon a large portion of Her Majesty's subjects a serious grievance which demands the immediate attention of Parliament; Amendment proposed, by inserting, after the word "Wales," the words "under which board schools receive a larger grant of public money than voluntary or denominational schools for the same educational work, carried on under the same inspection and under the same educational code, and under which the local authorities for National Primary Education are unequally dis-

Established Church (England and Wales):

67. [1897.] That it is expedient to disestablish and disendow the Church of England both in England and Wales; negatived, on Division; CL. 59.

Great
Peasant Freeholders (Wales) :

Land Law (Ireland) Act, 1881 (Irish Land Commission Rules) :

Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Bill :

Financial Relations (England and Ireland) :

National Expenditure :

Museum Grants (Wales) :

Agents on their Petition of the Committee, be referred to the Committee, and that the Petitioners may be heard by themselves, their Counsel, and Agents on their Petition against the Bill ; negatived, on Division ; CLIX. 99.

of the Committee, be referred to the Committee, and that the Petitioners may be heard by themselves, their Counsel, and Agents on their Petition against the Bill ; negatived, on Division ; CLII. 99.

Land Law (Ireland) Act, 1881 (Irish Land Commission Rules) :

Division; CLII. 110.

Museum Grants (Wales) :

71. [1898.] That, in the opinion of this House, it is unjust that Wales should receive no share of the Museum Grants of the United Kingdom, and that it is expedient to make Provision, similar to that made for Scotland and Ireland, for the expenditure of a due share of the Museum Grant in Wales; negatived, on Division; CLIX. 78.

National Expenditure :

72. [1899.] That, in the opinion of this House, the National Expenditure is excessive, and is capable of reduction without compromising the safety or legitimate influence of the Country Abroad, or the efficiency of its Home Administration; Amendment proposed, to insert, after the word "House," the words "while this House is anxious to provide for the maintenance of the Navy in its existing relative strength, it is of opinion that," but not made; and Main Question negatived, on Division; CLIV. 142.

Peasant Freeholders (Wales) :

73. [1897.] That this House is of opinion that the distressed condition of the Peasant and Small Occupying Freeholders of Wales is such as to call for the earliest attention of the Government, and that it is desirable that State Loans, subject to a low rate of interest, should be granted to such of the Peasant Freeholders as purchased their own holdings with money borrowed on the security of their land to enable them to redeem existing mortgages in respect of which a higher rate of interest is payable than such Freeholders are able to pay in the present state of agriculture; negatived, on Division; CLIX. 80.

Taxation (Ireland) :

74. [1898.] That the disproportion between the Taxation of Ireland and its taxable capacity, as compared with the other parts of the Kingdom, disclosed by the findings of the Royal Commission, constitutes a grievance, and demands the early attention of the Government, with a view to proposing a Remedy; and, at Midnight, Debate adjourned; CLIX. 310. Debate resumed, and Question negatived, on Division, Division. 313.

Financial Relations (England and Ireland) :

75. [1899.] That in the economic circumstances of Ireland the disproportion between the taxation of Ireland and its taxable capacity, disclosed by the findings of the Royal Commission, demands the serious attention of the Government, with a view to a Remedy; and, Question negatived, on Division; CLIX. 112.

Importation of Foreign Manufactured Goods:

76. [1897.] That fully manufactured goods brought into this Country from any Foreign Country should pay a toll, for the benefit of the British labour thereby displaced, of Ten per cent ad valorem, and partly Manufactured Goods a Customs toll of half that amount, and that the process should be applied in forming the nucleus of a national fund for the granting of weekly pensions to deserving and necessitous persons over 65 years of age incapacitated from earning a livelihood by sickness or infirmity, or otherwise unfitted for the benefit of British trade and labour; negatived; CLIX. 183.

Local Taxation:

77. [1900.] That, having regard to the heavy and increasing burden of Local Taxation in Urban and certain other Districts, the House urges upon the Government the necessity of forthwith redressing the unsalubrious grievances from which many ratepayers suffer; and Question negatived, on Division; CLV. 165.

London Government (Borough of Chelsea Order in Council):

78. [1900.] That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to withhold Her Assent to the Draft Order in Council of the 27th day of March 1900, for the establishment of the Metropolitan Borough of Chelsea, unless Amendments are made therein so that the northern boundary of the new Borough shall be the centre of New Street, and the Brompton Road, in lieu of the centre of Basil Street, and Hooper's Court; and Question negatived; CLV. 150.

Ministers of the Crown as Directors of Public Companies:

79. [1900.] That, in the opinion of this House, the position of a Public Company Director is incompatible with the position of a Minister of the Crown, and the union of such offices is calculated to lower the dignity of public life; and Question negatived, on Division; CLV. 180.

Queen Mary's School, Walsall (Scheme) :

80. [1897.] That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to withhold Her Consent to a Scheme under "The Endowed Schools Act, 1869," and Amending Acts, for the management of Queen Mary's School, Walsall, which was presented to this House in the 7th day of February last; and Question negatived, on Division; CLV. 112.

South African Republic (Parliamentary Inquiry (1897) into the Jameson Raid):

81. [1899.] That it is expedient that a full inquiry be made into the origin and circumstances of the conspiracy against the Transvaal Government, and of the incursion into the South African Republic by an armed force in 1895; and Question negatived, on Division; CLIX. 116.

Universities (Scotland) Ordinance:

82. [1897.] That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to withhold Her Assent to the Ordinance numbered 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, and 18, made by the Commissioners under "The Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889"; Amendment proposed to insert, after the word "elevens," the words "so far as it makes Greek compulsory for Honours in Mental Philosophy;" but, on Division, not made; Main Question, on Division, negatived; CLIV. 250.

University of Wales (Charter):

83. [1898-91.] That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to withhold Her Assent from the Charter of the University of Wales in its present form, and until it be amended so as to enable Students, unconnected with the University Colleges of Aberystwith, Cardiff, or Bangor, to present themselves for the examinations for degrees; negatived; CLIV. 251.

IV. Incidental Proceedings ; 7—18.

I. Committee of Privileges :

1. Appointed ; [1890–91] ; CXLVI. 4.—[1892] ; CXLVII. 4. ; Sess. 2. ; CXLVIII. 411.—[1893–94] ; CXLVIII. 8.—[1895] ; Cl. 4. ; Sess. 2. ; CL. 342.—[1899] ; Cl. 4.

II. Resolutions relative to Privileges :

2. Complaint made by Mr. Sexton—Resolution, That the passages in the "Times" article complained of constitute a gross breach of the Privileges of this House ; [1893–94] ; CXLVIII. 66.

3. Complaint made to the House by Mr. Tritton, Member for the Norwood Division of Lambeth, of a letter written by Mr. Coyle, Member for the Camborne Division of Cornwall, and published in the "Daily Chronicle" newspaper of the 3rd July, reflected on the conduct of this House in the Chair, which he submitted constituted a grave breach of the Privileges of this House. The said Paper was delivered and the passage read ; Resolution, "No. 3." That the letter written by Mr. Coyle, published in the "Daily Chronicle," newspaper of the 3rd July, constitutes a breach of the Privileges of this House ; Motion, That Mr. Coyle be suspended from the service of the House for one week ; Mr. Speaker addressed the House, and Mr. Coyle having apologised to the House, Motion for his suspension withdrawn ; [1893–94] ; CXLVIII. 417.

III. Motions Withdrawn relative to Privileges :

4. Complaint made to the House by Mr. Halsey, Member for Preston, of a letter purporting to have been written by Mr. Coyle, Member for the Camborne Division of Cornwall, and published in the "Westminster Gazette," Newspaper of this evening, reflecting on the conduct of Members in this House, and of the Speaker of this House in the Chair, which, he submitted, constituted a breach of the Privileges of this House ; the said newspaper was handed in, and the letter complained of was read. (See Complaint.) Mr. Halsey thereupon intimated that, after Mr. Speaker's observations, he should not proceed with the Motion he had intended to submit to the House ; [1893–94] ; CXLVII. 123.

5. Complaint made to the House by Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, Member for West Birmingham, of certain passages in the "Daily News" newspaper of this day, purporting to be a verbatim report of proceedings in the Committee on the Government Government of Ireland Bill on Thursday last, and of the consequence thereon in a leading article in the Evening News. The said newspaper was handed in, and the passages complained of were read; Amendment and Motion severally withdrawn; [1893-94]: CXLVI. 394.

8. Special Report from a Select Committee read and considered; a Member and other Persons ordered to attend the House on a certain day; [1892]: CXLIV. 277. Mr. Speaker addresses them and the Member heard in his place, and then he withdrew and the other persons heard at the Bar and then were directed to withdraw. After Division was made it was resolved that the Member and the other persons be summoned by Mr. Speaker for their conduct in endeavouring to influence certain persons who gave evidence before a Select Committee, and which constituted a gross breach of Privilege of this House; [1892]: CXLVI. 106-7.

9. Complaint made by Mr. Barlow, Member for North Jodrell, of certain passages in a speech delivered by Mr. Knox, Member for West Carlow, at a Meeting of the National Construction League in the Memorial Hall, Exeter Street, and reported in the "Daily Chronicle" newspaper of 15th instant, imputing corruption to certain Members of this House, which he submitted constituted a breach of the Privileges of this House. The said newspaper was handed in, and the passage complained of read; Motion, That the said speech is a gross breach of Privilege Members heard in his place. Previous Question moved. Resolution, That the Question be now put; [1893-94]: CXLVII. 631.

10. Complaint made to the House by Mr. Privett Morgan, Member for Merthyr Tydvil, on the action of Sir Edward Watkin, Member forHythe, who, he alleged, had, through his Solicitor, Mr. Morris, of the firm of Morris, Ashcroft & Morris, induced Mr. Perks, Member for the Louth Division of Lincolnshire, to object to proceed with the Voluntary Conveyances Bill on 31st May 1893, and that any persons have been guilty of a breach of the Privileges of this House, which he submitted constituted a breach of the Privileges of this House. The said newspaper was handed in, and the passage complained of read; Motion, That the said speech is a gross breach of Privilege Members heard in his place. Previous Question moved. Resolution, That the Question be now put; [1893-94]: CXLVIII. 531.

11. Sessional Order, 12th March, relating to the Interferences of Peers at Elections; Motion, That this House resolves that the Earl of Rosebery, a Peer of Parliament, First Lord of the Treasury, President of the Council, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Midlothian, has, by his Speech on the 17th March, taken part in the declaration of a large number of the Commons of the United Kingdom by concerning himself in the election of a Member to serve for the borough of Leith in the House of Commons; Motion made, and Question proposed, That the action of the Lord Chancellor in presenting to the House of Lords for the election of a Member to serve for the borough of Leith after the 3rd day of May 1893, with the undisclosed object of gaining the passage of a private member's Bill through the Lords, constitutes a breach of the Privileges of this House; [1893-94]: CXLIX. 79.

12. Complaint made by Mr. Havelock Wilson of a certain passage in a newspaper which he submitted constituted a breach of the Privileges of this House; newspaper handed in, and passage complained of read; Motion, That Speaker intervenes and declines to submit the case as a question of Privilege, and gives a reason; Mr. Wilson tenders an explanation to the House, on being allowed to do so; [1896]: CLVI. 101.

IV. Motions relative to Railways:
Railway Rates and Charges;—See Resolutions.

Railway Rates and Charges:
864. [1892-93.] In the opinion of this House, the revised Railway Rates, Charges, and conditions of Traffic are most prejudicial to the Industries and agricultural and commercial interests of the Country, and this House urges upon the Government the necessity of dealing promptly and effectively with the subject by legislation, declaring unreasonable rates, charges, and conditions illegal, and establishing, in connection with the Board of Trade or otherwise, a cheap, simple, and expeditious mode of determining, in ease of dispute, what are reasonable or unreasonable rates, charges, and conditions (Sir Albert Roils). Amendment on going into Supply, withdrawn; CXLVI. 103.

Railway Servants:
865. [1890-91.] Motion, That there be laid before this House a Return of weekly-paid Servants of Railways of the United Kingdom, who were on duty during the month of September, 1890, for more than Ten Hours at a time, or who, after being on duty for more than Ten Hours were allowed to resume work with less than Eight Hours' Rest, and of the average Rates of Wages of each grade of such Servants, to be furnished by each Company separately, &c.; Withdrawn; CXLVI. 88.

866. [1890-91.] In the opinion of this House, the excessive hours of labour imposed on railway servants by the existing arrangements of the Railway Companies of the United Kingdom constitute a grave social injustice, and are a constant source of danger both to the men themselves and to the travelling public; and that it is expedient that the Board of Trade should obtain powers by legislation to issue orders, where necessary, directing Railway Companies to limit the hours of work of special classes of their servants, or to make such a reasonable increase in any class of their servants as will obviate the necessity for overtime work (Mr. Channing). Amendment on going into Supply negatived (on Division); CXLVI. 39.

I. Resolutions of the House;

Access to Mountains (Scotland):

1. [1892.] That, in the opinion of this House, legislation is needed for the purpose of securing the right of the public to enjoy free access to uncultivated Mountains and Moorlands, especially in Scotland, subject to proper provisions for preventing any abuse of such right; CXLVII. 82.

Agricultural Holdings:

2. [1893-94.] That, in the opinion of this House, amendments of the Law are urgently needed to enable the tenant to obtain adequate compensation on the determination of a tenancy for all agricultural improvements executed by him on his holding, to give greater equity of tenure and freedom to make improvements, to cultivate and to sell produce without detriment to the agricultural value of the holding, to abolish the landlord's right to distrain for rent, and to simplify and cheapen the settlement of compensation cases and other differences between landlord and tenant; CXLVIII. 340.

Anarchist Crime in the French Chamber:

3. [1892-94.] New Com. That Mr. Speaker's Letter, with a record of the sentiments of sympathy and respect expressed in the House and communicated to the President of the Chamber of Deputies in France, be entered on the Journal of the House; CXLVII. 621.

Arbitration with the United States:

4. [1893-94.] That this House has learnt with satisfaction that both Houses of the United States Congress have, by Resolution, requested the President to invite, from time to time, as & occasions may arise, negotiations with any Government with which the United States have or may have diplomatic relations, to the end that any differences or disputes arising between the two Governments which cannot be adjusted by diplomatic agency may be referred to arbitration and peaceably adjusted by such means; and that this House, cordially sympathizing with the purpose in view, expresses the hope that Her Majesty's Government will lend their ready co-operation to the Government of the United States upon the basis of the foregoing Resolution; CXLVIII. 341.

Armenian Christians:

5. [1896.] That this House expresses its deep sympathy with the sufferings of the Christian Population in Asiatic Turkey, but trusts that further endeavours will be made to ameliorate their lot; CL. 73.

Assassination of the King of Italy:

6. [1890.] New Com. That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, to convey to Her Majesty the expression of the indignation and deep concern with which this House has learned the Assassination of Her Majesty's Ally, and to pray Her Majesty that She will be graciously pleased to express to His Majesty the King of Italy, and to pray Her Majesty that She will be graciously pleased to express to His Majesty the abhorrence of the Crime, and their sympathy with the Royal Family of Italy, and with the Government and People of that Country; CLV. 285.

Army Contract Scandals:

7. [1900.] That, in the opinion of this House, the passages in the letter of Messrs. Rees and Hindley, read at the Table of the House, constitute a breach of the Privileges of this House; CLV. 276.

[1891.] That a Select Committee be appointed to inquire whether it is desirable to take measures to bring the action of the Charity Commission more directly under the control of Parliament, and to give it more effectual means of dealing with the business which will come before it ; CXLIX. 48.

See Committees.

Church Discipline Bill : 10. [1890.] That this House, while not prepared to accept a measure which creates fresh offences and ignores the authority of the Bishops in maintaining the discipline of the Church, is of opinion that if the efforts now being made by the Archbishops and Bishops to secure the due obedience of the Clergy are not speedily effectual, further legislation will be required to maintain the observance of the existing Laws of Church and State ; CLIV. 100.

Church of Scotland (Disestablishment and Disen- dowment) : 11. [1892.] That it is not desirable in itself, nor con- sistent with the wishes of the people of Scotland, that the Church of Scotland should be disestablished and its endowments diverted to secular use; and that, in the opinion of this House, it is highly desirable that the Presbyterian Churches of Scot- land should be re-united upon a National basis, and that the endowments should continue to be appropriated to religious purposes ; CXLVII. 290.

29. [1897.] That the Thanks of this House be given to the Very Reverend Frederick William Furne, D.D., Dean of Canterbury, for the Sermon preached by him on Sunday the 20th day of June last, before this House in Saint Margaret's Church, Westminster, and that he be desired to print the same : CXLIX. 129.

Currency : 30. [1896.] That this House is of opinion that the instability of the relative value of gold and silver since the action of the Latin Union in 1879 has proved injurious to the best interests of this Country, and urges upon the Government the advisability of doing all in their power to secure by Inter- national Agreement a stable monetary par of exchange between gold and silver ; CLI. 102.

Clerical
Death of H.R.H. the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, Duke of Edinburgh, K.G.:

32. (1890.) New. Com., That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty to express the deep concern of this House at the great loss which her Royal Highness has sustained by the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, Duke of Edinburgh, K.G., second Son of Her Majesty the Queen, and to concide with Her Majesty on this melancholy occasion; to assure Her Majesty that this House will ever feel the warmest interest in whatever concerns Her Majesty's domestic relations; and to declare the ardent wishes of this House for the happiness of Her Majesty and Her Family; CXLV. 380.

33. (1890.) New. Com., That this House do concur with Her Majesty and Her Imperial Highness of the satisfaction which this House feels at the event so gratifying to the parental affections of Their Royal Highnesses of the Prince and Princess of Wales, and of such promise for the future happiness of the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, Duke of Edinburgh, K.G.; CXLV. 380.

Distress in India:

34. (1890.) That this House, while deeply sympathising with the Christian fellow-subjects in the sufferings which plague and famine have inflicted upon them, is of opinion that it may safely be left to the Government of India to carry out any modification of the land tenure and industrial system which experience may have shown to be likely to mitigate the effects of famine and epidemic disease; CXL. 138.

Duke of York's Marriage:

35. (1893-94.) New. Com., That a Message be sent to Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales to congratulate Their Royal Highnesses on Their Marriage of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, and to assure Their Royal Highnesses of the satisfaction which this House feels at an event so gratifying to the parental affections of Their Royal Highnesses, and of such promise for the future happiness of Their Family; CXLVIII. 434.

36. (1893-94.) New. Com., That a Message be sent to Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of York to offer the cordial congratulations of this House on Their Royal Highnesses' Marriage, and an expression of their earnest desire that this Union may supply a firm foundation for Their Royal Highnesses' domestic happiness; CXLVIII. 434.

East India (Revenue Accounts):

37. (1890-91.) Resolution, That Standing Order No. 31 be amended by inserting after the words "Ways and Means" the words "or the Committee on the East India Revenue Accounts"; CXLVI. 96.

East India (Expenses of Troops in Africa in aid of Egyptian Troops):

38. (1890.) That, Her Majesty having directed a Military expedition of Her Native Forces charged upon the revenue of India to be despatched to Africa in aid of the Egyptian Troops, this House consents that the ordinary pay of any troops or vessels so chargeable is now chargeable upon the revenue of India as such troops or vessels had remained in that country or seas adjacent, shall continue to be so chargeable: Provided that if it shall become necessary to replace the troops or vessels so withdrawn by other vessels or Native forces, then the expense of raising, maintaining, and providing such vessels and forces shall, in so far as may be otherwise provided, be repaid out of any moneys which may be provided by Parliament for the purposes of the said expedition; CLII. 337.

Food Supplies (United Kingdom):

46. That, in the opinion of this House, the dependence of the United Kingdom on Foreign Imports for the Necessities of Life, and the consequences that might arise therefrom in the event of war, demand the serious attention of Her Majesty's Government; CLIII. 105.

Government Contracts:

47. That, in the opinion of this House, it is the duty of the Government in all Government Contracts to make provision against the evils recently disclosed before the Sweating Committee, to insert such conditions as may prevent the abuses arising from sub-letting, and to make every effort to secure the payment of such wages as are generally accepted as current in such trade for competent workmen; CXLVI. 90.

Gladstone, Mr. (Funeral and Monument):

48. That this House will, To-morrow, at half-past Three o'clock, resolve itself into a Committee to consider of an humble Address to be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to give directions that the remains of the Right Honourable William Ewart Gladstone be interred in the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, Westminster, and that a Monument be erected in the said Church to his memory, at the public expense; CLII. 213.

Habitual Inebriates:

51. That, inasmuch as the present condition of the Law relating to Habitual Inebriates, both criminal and non-criminal, is unsatisfactory, it is desirable that the Government should introduce Legislation dealing with the subject, and amended and extended in particular the Habitual Drunkards Act, 1879, and the Inebriates Act, 1888; CLII. 76.

High Court of Justice (Now Judge, Chancery Division):

52. That, inasmuch as the present condition of the Law relating to Habitual Inebriates, both criminal and non-criminal, is unsatisfactory, it is desirable that the Government should introduce Legislation dealing with the subject, and amended and extended in particular the Habitual Drunkards Act, 1879, and the Inebriates Act, 1888; CLII. 76.

Home Rule (Scotland):

53. That, inasmuch as the present condition of the Law relating to Habitual Inebriates, both criminal and non-criminal, is unsatisfactory, it is desirable that the Government should introduce Legislation dealing with the subject, and amended and extended in particular the Habitual Drunkards Act, 1879, and the Inebriates Act, 1888; CLII. 76.

House; Business of the:

54. That, for the remainder of the Session (unless the House otherwise order), the House do meet on Friday at Three of the clock; that Standing Order No. 11 be suspended, and the provisions of Standing Order 56 be extended to every day of the week, and that the Question on any Motion appearing a Saturday Sitting be put forthwith, until the Adjournment for the Autumn Holidays, Government Business, and the appointment thereof, may be entered on at any hour, though opposed, and be not interrupted under the provisions of any Standing Order relating to the Sittings of the House, except by a Minister of the Crown; CXLVIII. 338.

55. That whenever the Purchase of Land is appointed for that day, Government Business do have priority, except by a Minister of the Crown; CXLVIII. 338.

56. That, on Fridays the House do meet at Two o'clock, and the provisions of Standing Order 56 be extended to the Sitting this evening; CXLVII. 114.

57. That, unless the Workmen (Compensation for Accidents) Bill is appointed for Tuesday, the House do meet at Three of the clock, and the proceedings on the Bill do have precedence over all the other Orders of the Day, and that the said Bill have precedence on Wednesday until it shall have passed through Committee; CXLVI. 246.

58. That, whenever the Workmen (Compensation for Accidents) Bill is appointed for Tuesday, the House do meet at Three of the clock, and the proceedings on the Bill do have precedence of the Notices of Motions and the other Orders of the Day; and that the said Bill do have precedence on Wednesday whenever it is appointed for that day; CL III. 258.

59. That, for the remainder of the Session, Supply and Ways and Means may be entered upon at any hour, though opposed; and the Proceedings thereon shall not be interrupted under the provisions of any Standing Order regulating the Sittings of the House, except of Standing Order No. 5; CX LV. 140.

60. That, in the opinion of this House, it is the duty of the Government in all Government Contracts to make provision against the evils recently disclosed before the Sweating Committee, to insert such conditions as may prevent the abuses arising from sub-letting, and to make every effort to secure the payment of such wages as are generally accepted as current in such trade for competent workmen; CXLVI. 90.

61. That, inasmuch as the present condition of the Law relating to Habitual Inebriates, both criminal and non-criminal, is unsatisfactory, it is desirable that the Government should introduce Legislation dealing with the subject, and amended and extended in particular the Habitual Drunkards Act, 1879, and the Inebriates Act, 1888; CLII. 76.

74. [1892-94.] Winter Sittings: Resolution, That this House do not resume till February; [CXLVIII. 227.]

75. [1892-94.] Resolution, That as soon as the Local Government Act, 1894, is passed, this House proceeds on the Government of India to continue their policy of gradually diminishing the cultivation of the poppy and the production and sale of opium, and that an Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to appoint a Royal Commission to report as to: [CXLVII. 76.

76. [1898.] That it is of vital importance for British commerce and influence that the Independence of Chinese Territory should be maintained; [CLIV. 94.

the greatest objections, this House thinks it inexpedient that the Government should take any steps to procure the re-assembly of the Conference; [CLIV. 94.

78. [1892.] That this House regards with increasing apprehension the constant fluctuations and the growing divergence in the relative value of gold and silver; and heartily concurs in the recent expression of opinion on the part of the Government of France and the Government and Parliament of Germany as to the serious evils resulting therefrom; it therefore urges upon Her Majesty's Government the desirability of co-operating with other Powers in an International Conference for the purpose of considering what measures can be taken to remove or mitigate those evils; [CL. 59.

[1895-94.] That, having regard to the strong objections urged on moral grounds to the system by which the Indian opium revenue is raised, this House presses on the Government of India to continue their policy of gradually diminishing the cultivation of the poppy and the production and sale of opium, and that an Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to appoint a Royal Commission to report as to: [CXLVII. 76.

79. [1896-97.] That this House regards with increasing apprehension the constant fluctuations and the growing divergence in the relative value of gold and silver; and heartily concurs in the recent expression of opinion on the part of the Government of France and the Government and Parliament of Germany as to the serious evils resulting therefrom; it therefore urges upon Her Majesty's Government the desirability of co-operating with other Powers in an International Conference for the purpose of considering what measures can be taken to remove or mitigate those evils; [CL. 59.

Intoxicating Liquors (Licences) England:

93. [1899, Sess. II.] That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, thanking Her Majesty for Her Most Gracious Message communicating to this House Her Majesty's intention to use the Militia to be embodied, and that the Militia Reserve Force, or such part thereof as Her Majesty should think necessary, to be called out forthwith for Permanent Service; CLIV. 435.

National Museums (London): Opening on Sundays:

94. [1896.] That, in the opinion of this House, it is desirable that the National Museums and Art Galleries in London should be open for a limited number of hours on Sundays, after 2 p.m., upon condition that no officer shall be required to attend on more than six days per week, and that any who may have conscientious objections shall be excepted from Sunday duty; CLI. 46.

Naval Establishments:

95. [1892-94.] That, in the opinion of this House, no person should in Her Majesty's Naval Establishments be engaged at wages insufficient for a proper maintenance, that the conditions of labour as regards hours, wages, insurance against accidents, provision for old age, &c., should be such as to afford an example to private employers throughout the Country; CXLVIII. 106.

Navy:

96. [1893-94.] That, in the opinion of this House, it is a primary duty of the responsible Ministers of the Crown to make adequate provision for the Naval Defence of the Empire and the protection of its interests, and this House relies on Her Majesty's Advisers to submit to Parliament fitting proposals in due time and measure to secure that end; CXLVIII. 220.

Navy and Army Expenditure. Resolutions—See Committees of the whole House.

Navy and Army Expenditure:

97. [1890-91.] Resolution, on future day to go into a Committee to consider the Savings and Deficiencies upon Navy and Army Grants for 1890-91, and the temporary sanction obtained from the Treasury by the Navy and Army Departments to the Expenditure not provided for in the Grants for that year; Appropriation Accounts for the Navy and Army Departments, which were presented upon the 10th and 11th days of February last respectively, referred to the Committee; CXLVI. 476.—[1892] ; CXLVIII. 308.—[1891] ; CXLIX. 265.—[1890, Sess. II.] ; CL. 380.—[1895, Sess. II.] ; CLI. 350.—[1897] ; CLI. 387.—[1893] ; CLIII. 296.—[1895] ; CLV. 354.—[1899].

Newfoundland Fisheries Bill:

98. [1890-91.] That this House, having been informed that a satisfactory Act has now passed the Legislature of Newfoundland, and declaring its readiness to support the Government in taking all measures necessary for carrying out the Treaty obligations of this Country, and the arrangements for arbitration made with the Government of France in this matter, does not now proceed to the Second Reading of the Bill; CLIV. 512.

Sir Reginald Francis Douce Palgrave, K.C.B.:

99. [1890.] Resolution, Ness, Cas., That Mr. Speaker be requested to convey to Sir Reginald Francis Douce Palgrave, K.C.B., on his retirement from the Office of Clerk of this House, the assurance of its sincere appreciation of the valuable aid it has derived from his intimate acquaintance with the law and custom of Parliament, acquired during upwards of forty-six years of devoted service in efficient offices, of which thirty-one have been passed at the Table, whose accurate knowledge and ready advice has rendered constant assistance to the House and its Members in the conduct of its ever increasing business; CLI. 12.

1. Resolutions of the House—continued.

Privilege: (Intervention of Peers at Parliamentary Prisons by the forced labour of Convicts and Felons ; CL XVII. 136.

2. [1892.] That, in the opinion of this House, it is inconvenient upon Her Majesty's Government, in the interests of the Industrial Classes of the United Kingdom, at once to take steps to restrict the importation of goods made in Foreign Prisons by the forced labour of Convicts and Felons ; CL XVII. 48.

3. [1892.] Resolution, That the present system of Private Bill Legislation (Ireland) : That in the opinion of this House, it is desirable, in the interests of the educational purposes of payment of all grants, on the disposal of the inhabitants of the schools, and under the condition of the schools, and the desirability that the electors of the country of buildings suitable for holding public meetings in schools in receipt of Parliamentary Imperial and local interests, this House is of opinion should be enabled to hear both sides of questions affecting, and that legislation with this view is urgently required ; CL XVIII. 136.

4. [1892.] That, this House, while recognising that Mr. John William Macleod, Mr. James Frederick Buckley, Mr. William Bailey Hawkins, and Mr. John Cushner have disclaimed any intention to deter any railway servant from giving evidence before its Committee, and have expressed their unqualified respect for having unhesitatingly infringed any of its Rules and Privileges, is of opinion that the said Mr. John William Macleod, Mr. James Frederick Buckley, Mr. William Bailey Hawkins, and Mr. John Cushner have committed a breach of the Privileges of this House in their action towards John Hoed, and that they be called in and admonished by Mr. Speaker for the breach of Privilege that they have committed ; CXVIII. 162.

5. [1892-94.] Complaint made to the House by Mr. Sexton, Member for North Kerry, of certain passages in an article of the "Times" Newspaper of the 17th February 1893, reflecting on certain Members of this House, which, he submitted, constituted a breach of the Privileges of this House. The said newspaper was handed in, and the passages complained of were read. 8. [1900-01.] That, in the opinion of this House, the excessive and unnecessarily long Hours of Labour are injurious to the comfort, health, and well-being of all concerned; and that it is desirable to give to Local Authorities such powers as may be necessary to enable them to carry out the general wishes of the shop-keeping community with reference to the Hours of Closing ; CXVIII. 149.

9. [1904.] That this House calls upon Her Majesty's Government to make all possible provision for the employment of reserve or time-expired soldiers and sailors of good character by allotting to them preferentially such posts in the Public Service as they are competent to fill ; CLI. 162.

10. [1890-91.] That all Bills of the present Session to confirm Provisional Orders made by the Board of Trade, under "The Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888," containing the Classification of Merchandise Traffic; and the Schedule of Maximum Rates and Charges applicable thereto, be referred to a Joint Committee of Lords and Commons ; CXVI. 129.

11. [1892-93.] That, in the opinion of this House, the revised railway rates, charges, and conditions of traffic are most prejudicial to the industries and agricultural and commercial interests of the Country, and this House urges upon the Government the necessity of dealing promptly and effectually with the subject ; CXVIII. 104.

12. [1890-91.] That provision ought to be made for further restricting the Rates throughout the Metropolis ; CXVIII. 80.

13. [1892.] That a large representative element should be introduced into the Scottish Fishery Board; that a sufficient number of District Fishery Committees should be instituted to take charge of local fishery interests on the coasts of Scotland; that powers should be granted by the Commissioners of Woods and Forests to such District Fishery Committees to issue licences to fishermen to fish for salmon on suitable parts of the coasts of Scotland; that proof should be required of the tithe under which Scottish mussel scalps are claimed and held; that power should be given to District Fishery Committees in Scotland to regulate, acquire, and work mussel scalps within their several districts; and that the regulations from time to time made in respect of the various classes of fishermen working in Scottish seas should be enforced by an effective system of sea police; CXVIII. 90.

14. [1892-94.] That, in the opinion of this House, the facilities for obtaining land no longer presented by England should be at once extended to Ireland; CXIX. 75.

15. [1894.] That this House calls upon Her Majesty's Government to make all possible provision for the employment of reserve or time-expired soldiers and sailors of good character by allotting to them preferentially such posts in the Public Service as they are competent to fill ; CLI. 162.

II. Incidental Proceedings; 26—31.

I. Speeches of the Queen or of the Lords Commissioners at the Opening and Close of each Session:

1. November 25 1890.—My Lords and Gentlemen.—No change has taken place in the Foreign relations of this Country during the short period which has elapsed since the close of the preceding Session. The securities for European peace appear to Me to be undiminished.

I have commenced negotiations with the King of Italy for the determination of the frontier which separates the territory under British influence in North-East Africa from that which belongs to the protected Empire of Abyssinia.

A Treaty was signed on the 20th August, having for its object the ascertainment of the boundaries between British territory in Central Africa and the Portuguese Provinces of Angola, Tsaa, and Mbanzambique. It has, however, not received the ratification of the King of Portugal; and, pending further negotiations, a temporary arrangement in regard to the most urgent questions has been concluded between the two Countries, which will be laid before you.

Negotiations have also been commenced in respect of the Newfoundland Fishery questions, and I trust that a settlement which will be laid before you.

Proposals will again be made to you for remedying the difficulties which have arisen from the indirect incidence of those periods of severe distress to which the population of the Western Counties are peculiarly exposed by the industrial and economic conditions under which they live. I trust that the measures of My Government may mitigate the immediate evil, and diminish the probability of its return.

Me also desirable, for the increase of contentment and the diminution of political disturbance throughout Ireland, to take measures for augmenting the number of owners engaged in the actual cultivation of the land.

That in pursuance of instructions received during the sitting of the House yesterday, Mr. Speaker had communicated a record of statements made in this House, accompanied by the following Letter, to the President of the Chamber of Deputies in France, (France (Anarchist Crime in the Chamber of Deputies)); [1890-91]; CXLVIII. 621. Acquaints the House, That Mr. Speaker had received a communication from the President of the Chamber of Deputies in France (entered); 625.

231. That Messages had been brought from the Lords; [1890-91]; CXLVII. 35.—[1899]; CL. 35.

232. That Mr. Deputy Speaker do now leave the Chair for Committee on Navy Estimates; withdrawn; [1899]; CL. 82.

233. That Mr. Deputy Speaker do now leave the Chair for Committee on Navy Estimates; Question put, and Debate adjourned; [1900]; CL. 66. (Closure of Debate) ; [1900]; CL. 66.

234. Reports Her Majesty's Speech at the opening of Session; [1890-91]; CXLI. 6.—[1894]; CXLIX. 6.

235. Rises to interrupt the Business at half past Five on Wednesday; [1890-91]; CXLVI. 27.

236. Issues Warrant for a new Writ; [1890-91]; CXLIX. 638.

237. Puts the Question pursuant to Standing Order (Closure of Debate); [1899]; CL. 82.

238. Withholds his Assent to Closure; [1900]; CL. 34.

for purchasing small parcels of land in Great Britain; for amending the Law with respect to the compensation payable by employers in cases of injury to persons in their employment; for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to Public Health; for the appointment of a Public Trustee; and for increasing the security of Friendly Societies and Savings Banks.

In the discharge of the several duties which are assigned to you, I counsel you heartily to the guidance of Almighty God; CXLVII. 7.

2. August 5, 1891.—My Lords and Gentlemen.—I am glad to be able to release you from the labours of a protracted Session.

My relations with all other Powers—continue to be those of peace and vanity.

A Convention has been concluded with the King of Portugal, and has been ratified, defining the boundaries which separate the dominions and the spheres of influence of the two Crowns in Eastern Africa. I have also entered into an Agreement with the King of Italy, by which the line has been fixed which separates the Territories of Italy in the south-east of Africa from the British sphere of influence, and from the territory of Egypt.

I have made proposals to the President of the United States for submission to arbitration of the difference between us on the seal fishery in Behring's Sea. The negotiations are for advanced, but they are not yet concluded. A suspension of the seal fishery in those waters for the present year has intermediately been agreed to between the two Governments, in order to prevent an excessive destruction of the species, which there is reason to apprehend.

The French Chambers have not yet approved of an Agreement between Myself and the French Republic for reference to arbitration of certain differences with respect to Newfoundland, which was signed during the present year.

The ratification of the Final Act of the Brussels Conference for the repression of the Slave Trade has also been postponed, and also the ratification of the North Sea Convention for the prevention of the sale of spirits at sea.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons.—I thank you for the provision you have made for the charge of the public service. I am glad that you have been able to devote a considerable sum to the mitigation of the burden which the Law of Compulsory Education has imposed upon the poorer portion of My people.

My Lords and Gentlemen.—The various measures which you have adopted in recent years for securing the observance of the Law by the proprietors of land in Ireland, and improving the general condition of that Country, have resulted in a marked abatement of agrarian offences, and a considerable advance in prosperity. The steps which have been taken to cope with the distress threatened by the serious failure of the potato crop in the poorest districts of the West of Ireland have proved effectual in arresting the great calamity of famine. You have also passed a beneficent measure for dealing permanently with the congested districts of Ireland, which, it may be hoped, will, by fostering agriculture and stimulating the fishing industry, contribute largely to the prevention of similar dangers in the future.

The provisions for enabling occupiers to purchase their holdings, and the measure for facilitating the transfer of real property, in Ireland, will furnish the best guarantee for public security and order by increasing the class of small proprietors of land.

The Act which you have passed for imposing on the owners of land a direct liability for the payment of tithe rent-charge will remove a frequent cause of conflict between the occupiers and the tithe-owners, and will also afford relief to the tithe-payers in those cases in which it is most urgently required.

In response to the growing demands of commerce and agriculture, you have completed an important part of the work of simplifying and adjusting Railway Rates, the results of which will doubtless justify the heavy labour which it has involved.

The measures which you have passed for improving the Law with respect to factories and workshops, savings banks, and public health will, I am confident, confer comfort and wellbeing of My people.

I trust that in a future Session you may be able to examine several questions of interest to which I have drawn your attention, but which the time at your disposal has not permitted you to approach.

I pray that, in the discharge of your various duties throughout My Kingdom, you may be attended by the guidance and protection of Almighty God; CXLVII. 525.

3. February 9, 1892.—My Lords and Gentlemen.—I am persuaded that you have deeply participated in the terrible sorrows which have afflicted Me and My Family in the loss, at the moment when the prospects of his life appeared the brightest, of My dearly beloved Grandson, Prince Albert Victor, Duke of Clarence and Avondale. It has been a misfortune to us in our grief to have received from all classes and conditions of My subjects, from all parts of My Empire, as well as from all Foreign countries, the most touching tokens of their deep sympathy under this grievous affliction, and the expression of their affectionate regard and appreciation for the dear young Prince whom they have lost by this great calamity.

My relations with other Powers—continue to be friendly. I have lost in the Viceoy of Egypt a loyal ally, whose wise government had, in the space of a few years, largely contributed to restore prosperity and peace to his country.

I have an entire confidence that the same sagacious policy will be followed by his son, who has been made as his successor, in accordance with previous Firmans, by His Imperial Majesty the Sultan.

An Agreement has been concluded with the United States, defining the mode in which disputes as to Seal Fisheries in Behring's Sea shall be referred to arbitration.

Zanzibar has been established as a free port by His Highness the Sultan, with My concurrence. I trust that this measure will conduces both to the development of the Sultan's dominions and to the promotion of British commerce on the East African Coast.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons.—The Estimates for the Public Service of the ensuing year will be laid before you. They have been prepared with a due regard to financial economy.

My Lords and Gentlemen.—Proposals will be laid before you for applying to Ireland the general principles effecting Local Government, which have already been adopted in Great Britain; and I trust that it may be possible to introduce the provisions as to Local Government which, for want of time, it was necessary to omit from the former Bill.

A measure for increasing the number of small holdings of land in agricultural districts in Great Britain will be submitted for your approval.

You will be asked to consider a Bill for extending the advantages of Assistance Education to Ireland, and for other purposes connected with Elementary Education in that country.

A scheme for modifying the existing system of procedure on Private Bills, so far as it affects Scotland and Ireland, will be brought before you.

A measure will be introduced for the improvement of the Legislative Councils in India.

The Treaties have been duly ratified which refer our differences with the United States in respect to Behring's Sea to arbitration.

The ratification also of the Final Act of the Brussels Conference, by which the occupation of that Country has been exceptionally short. The arrangements you have made for enabling labouring men to become purchasers of small agricultural holdings will increase the class of cultivating owners, which is of great importance to the State. The application to Ireland of these educational measures which have been recently adopted in Great Britain will confer great benefits upon the poorer classes of that country. You have sanctioned valuable provisions for reforming the Police Administration in Scotland, and for extending to Scotland the facilities for the hire of allotments which were given to the people of England and Wales a few years ago. At the same time, you have done much to lighten the burden of local taxation in that country, and to foster the interests of secondary and of University education. The Act for strengthening the discipline of the Church of England is regarded as rendering necessary a reform which has been too long delayed.

I have willingly accepted a measure for improving the constitution and proceedings of the Legislative Councils in India which will, I trust, enable My Government in that Country more fully to ascertain the opinions and wishes of various races and classes of My Subjects, and to secure the co-operation of those best qualified to give advice and assistance in the conduct of affairs.

I have assented gladly to the measures which you have wisely and generously adopted for the relief of My Subjects in the Island of Mauritius under the unexampled calamity which has overtaken them. In closing this Parliament, which has been unusually honourable, and has also been highly fruitful in beneficent legislation, I thank you for the unrivalled performance of your momentous duties during the last six years, and I heartily commend you to the favour of Almighty God; CXLVII. 406.

[1892, Sess. II.].

5. August 31, 1892. My Lords and Gentlemen.—We have to inform you by the command of Her Majesty that the present Parliament has been assembled in obedience to the terms of Her Majesty's Proclamation of the 26th June, 1892, by which the late Parliament was dissolved. Previous to that Dissolution the business of the Session was completed; and it is therefore not necessary that Parliament should now continue in Session at an unusual period of the year for the transactio of financial or legislative business.

It is Her Majesty's hope that when you meet again at the customary season you will again direct your attention to measures of social and domestic improvement, and that you will continue to advance in the path of useful and beneficent legislation, which has been so judiciously followed in previous Sessions; CXLVII. 416.

6. January 31, 1893. My Lords and Gentlemen.—I continue to hold friendly and harmonious relations with all Foreign Powers.

The declarations in every quarter are favourable to the maintenance of European peace. In connection with the approaching evacuation of Uganda by the British East Africa Company, I have decided it expedient to authorize a Commissioner of experience and ability to examine on the spot, with adequate provisions for his safety, into the best means of dealing with the Country, and to report to My Government upon the subject.

In view of recent occurrences in Egypt, I have determined on making a slight augmentation in the number of British troops in the Sudan. This measure does not indicate any change of policy, or any modification of the assurances which My Government have given from time to time respecting the occupation of that Country.

The Khuive has declared, in terms satisfactory to Me, his intention to follow hereafter the established practice of previous consultation with My Government in political affairs, and his desire to act in cordial co-operation with it.

In relation both to Egypt and to Uganda, Papers in continuation of those hitherto presented will at once be laid before you.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons.—The Estimates of Charge necessary for the Public Service in the coming Financial Year have been framed, and will be laid before you at an early date.

My Lords and Gentlemen.—I have observed with concern a wide prevalence of Agricultural Distress in many parts of the Country. It is to be hoped that, among the causes of the present depression, some may be temporary in their nature. But I do not doubt that you will take this grave matter into your consideration, and make it a subject of careful inquiry.

The Provisions recently in force, which placed Ireland under exceptional provisions of Law, have been revoked; and I have the satisfaction of informing you that the condition of that Country with respect to Agrarian Crime continues to improve.

A Bill will be submitted to you, on the earliest available occasion, to amend the provision for the Government of Ireland, which has been prepared with the desire to afford contentment to the Irish People, important Relief to Parliament, and additional securities for the strength and union of the Empire.

Bill will be promptly laid before you for the amendment of the system of Registration in Great Britain; for shortening the duration of Parliaments; and for establishing the equality of the Franchise by the limitation of each elector to a single vote.

There will also be proposed to you various Bills bearing on the condition of labour, among which are Measures in relation to the liability of employers, the hours of labour for railway servants, and a Bill to amend the Law of Conspiracy.

Your attention will likewise be invited to Measures for the further improvement of Local Government, including the creation of Parish Councils; for the enlargement of the powers of the London County Council; for the prevention of the growth of new vested interests in the Ecclesiastical Establishments in Scotland and in Wales; and for direct local control over the liquor trade; together with other Measures of public utility.

I humbly commend your labours upon these and upon all other subjects to the guidance of Almighty God; CXLVIII. 416.

7. March 5, 1894. My Lords and Gentlemen.—Upon an occasion when your labours have been unprecedented in amount and duration, that you make from them of that country as much as is possible, but not more than is necessary, it will be necessary for you to undertake, after only a very short interval, your deliberations upon public affairs, and upon the provisions required for the conduct of the coming financial year. I shall then have occasion again to address you in the ordinary course.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons.—I thank you for the liberal Supplies which you have granted in order to maintain the full efficiency of the Public Service in its various branches.

My Lords and Gentlemen.—I anticipate lasting advantages from many leading provisions of the important Statute which has been passed for the establishment of District and Parochial Councils in England and Wales, and from the extension which has been given to the principles of Local Government so closely associated with the national history. Nor do I overlook other amendments of the Law due to your councils, especially an Act affecting the hours of labour of railway servants.

It is my earnest prayer that the blessing of the Almighty may rest upon all your past and coming labours; CXLVIII. 12.

8. March 12, 1894.—My Lords and Gentlemen.—I regret, in view of the recent completion of your arduous labours, to have to summon you so soon to resume them.

My relations with Foreign Powers continue to be amicable and satisfactory.

The negotiations between My Government and that of the Egyptian Government for the settlement of frontier questions in Central Asia are proceeding in a spirit of mutual confidence and good will, which gives every hope of an early and equitable adjustment.

Negotiations.

Negotiations are also in progress with the Government of the United States for the purpose of executing the award of the Tribunal of Arbitration on the question of the Seal Fisheries in the Bering Sea.

I have pleasure in also informing you that the protocollard and intricate arrangements for fixing the frontier between My Burmese dominions and those of the Emperor of China have been brought to a satisfactory conclusion by the signature of a formal Convention.

Two collisions, accompanied by a lamentable loss of life, have lately occurred with French Colonial Forces in West Africa. I await the result of the inquiry instituted with regard to these deplorable occurrences, in the full confidence that they will be examined in the calm and dignified temper that bespeaks the two great Nations on such an occasion.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons.—The Estimate for the Public Service of the year will be laid before you. They will be found to make full and adequate provision for the defence of the Empire.

The state of affairs in Siam continues to engage My earnest attention. The welfare of that Kingdom, in which the interests of British trade are so preponderating, cannot be a matter of indifference to you.

Me sensible gratification to be able to dismiss you at the end of the Session, in the blessing and guidance of Almighty God; CXLIX. 6.

certain evicted tenants, whose situation still constitutes a peril to social order.
A Bill will be presented to you dealing with the Church Establishment in Wales.
Bills will also be laid before you having for their object the popular control of the Liquor Traffic; the abolition of Plural Voting; and provision for the payment of the charges of the Returning Officers at Elections.
The Commission which I appointed in the autumn of 1893, in consequence of the communications which I receive from Foreign Powers assure me of the continuance of the constant disorder.

I regret that agriculture continues in a seriously depressed condition. This subject is still under the consideration of the Commission which I appointed in the autumn of 1893. In the meantime, a proposal will be submitted to you for facilitating the construction of Light Railways, a measure which I trust, will be found beneficial to the rural districts.

Bills will also be presented for the promotion of conciliation in trade disputes, and for the amendment of the Factory Acts.
Yes, you will be asked to consider measures for the completion of the system of County Government in Scotland, and for further legislation in respect of the Creditor population in that Country.

I pray that the blessing of Almighty God may rest upon year arduous and responsible labours; CL 7.

[1895, Sess. II.]

11. August 15, 1895.—My Lords and Gentlemen.—The communications which I receive from Foreign Powers assure me of the continuance of their goodwill. I am happy to say that no international complication has arisen in any quarter which is calculated to endanger the peace of Europe.

The war between China and Japan, which was in progress at the beginning of the Session, has been brought to a conclusion by a peace which I trust will be enduring.

I have observed a strict neutrality during the war, and have taken no action in respect to it except such as appeared to Me likely to be favourable to the termination of hostilities.

I deeply regret to say that most atrocious outrages upon a body of English Missionaries have been reported to the Province of Fukien, in China. In reply to earnest representations addressed to the Chinese Government by My directives, active measures, which I trust will prove effective, are now being taken for the punishment of the murderers and of all persons who are in any degree responsible for these crimes.

Internal troubles have broken out in the Armenian districts of Asia Minor and of the province of Armenia, and have been attended with horrors which have moved the indignation of the Christian nations of Europe generally, and of My people especially. My Ambassador, and the Ambassadors of the Emperor of Russia and of the Emperor of the French Republic, acting together, have suggested to the Government of the Sultan the reforms which, in their opinion, are necessary to prevent a recurrence of disorder. These proposals are now being considered by His Imperial Majesty the Sultan, and I am anxiously awaiting his decision.

A Resolution has been passed by both Houses of the Parliament of My Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, proposing that the adjacent Crown Colony of British Bechuanaland should be incorporated with the Cape Colony. I have, in reply, signified my willingness to consider favourably an Act passed for that purpose, provided it contains proper safeguards for my interests and for those of My Native subjects, especially in the matter of their lands, the liquor traffic, and the maintenance of their own system of justice.

I have received satisfactory assurances on these points, and an Act has been passed by the Cape Parliament which I have every reason to expect will be found to fulfil My requirements. The Estimate for the year 1895, Sess. II. for the services of the year which were not voted in the last Parliament will be laid before you.

My Lords and Gentlemen.—At this season of the year it will probably be found more convenient to defer to another Session the consideration of any important legislative measures except those which are necessary to provide for the administrative charges of the year; CL 7.

12. February 11, 1896.—My Lords and Gentlemen,—I continue to receive from other Powers assurances of their friendly sentiments.

An Agreement has been concluded between My Government and that of the French Republic, having for its principal object the more secure establishment of the independence of the Kingdom of Siam. A copy of it will be laid before you.

The Commission for the delimitation of the frontier separating My Indian Empire and the Territory of Afghanistan from the dominions of the Emperor of Russia have agreed upon a line which has been accepted by Myself and by the Emperor.

The Government of the United States have expressed a wish to co-operate in terminating differences which have existed for many years between My Government and the Republic of Venezuela upon the boundary between that country and My Colony of British Guiana. I have expressed My sympathy with the desire to come to an equitable arrangement, and trust that further negotiation will lead to a satisfactory settlement.

The Sultan of Turkey has sanctioned the principal reforms in the government of the Armenian provinces, for which, in conjunction with the Sultan of Russia and the French Republic, the Turkish population has manifested a desire to co-operate in terminating differences which have existed for many years, and which have been attended with horrors which have caused the deepest indignation in this Country. Papers on these transactions will be laid before you.

A sudden invasion into the territory of the South Africa Republic by an armed force from the territory under the control of the British South Africa Company resulted in a deplorable collision with the Burglar forces.

My Ministers, at the earliest possible moment, intervened to prohibit, through the High Commissioner, this hostile action, and to warn all My subjects throughout South Africa against taking part in it.

The origin and circumstances of these proceedings will form the subject of a searching inquiry.

The President of the Republic, acting in this matter with moderation and wisdom, agreed to place the prisoners in the hands of My High Commissioner, and I have undertaken to bring to trial the leaders of the expedition.

The conduct of the President on this occasion, and the assurances which he has voluntarily given, lead Me to believe that he recognises the importance of re-establishing the legitimate grievances of which complaint has been made by a majority of the persons now inhabiting the Transvaal.

The question of affairs in Abyssinia, and the violation by the King of Kummis of the provisions of the Treaty of 1874 in regard to the suppression of human sacrifices, the freedom of trade, and the maintenance of communications, have moved Me for some years past engaged the serious attention of My Government. All endeavours to induce the King to observe his engagements having failed and frustrated, it became necessary to send an expedition to Kummis to enforce the conditions which he had been called upon to fulfil.

While desirous to be able to announce that the objects of the expedition have been achieved without bloodshed, I have to deplore the loss from the severities of the climate of some valuable lives, including that of My beloved Son-in-law, His Royal Highness Prince Henry of Battenberg, who voluntarily placed his services at the disposal of Myself and my adopted Country.

I and My dear Daughter are greatly touched and comforted in this heavy bereavement by the widespread sympathy that has been shown by My subjects throughout the Empire at home and abroad.

I trust that the establishment of an efficient British control at Kummis will put an end to the barbarous customs which have hitherto prevailed there, and, by preventing the inter-tribal conflicts which have interfered with the development of the country, will tend to the benefit of the people, and to the interests of peace and commerce.

Papers on the above subjects will shortly be laid before you.

On the northern frontiers of British India, the Empire the measures taken last year to secure an effective control over Chitral have been successful, and the engagements entered into by the British tribes for the maintenance and protection of the road from Peshawar have been loyally carried out without disturbance or interference.

Concerning the轴承 of Commons.—I have directed the Estimates for the service of the year to be laid before you.

They
They have been maintained with the tribes on the road to Chitral, and the relief of the garrisons in that country has been effected without difficulty, and with the cordial co-operation of the tribesmen in the neighbourhood.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons—I thank you for the satisfactory provision which you have made for the Services of the year.

My Lords and Gentlemen—I have given my consent, with much pleasure, to measures for completing the naval defences of My Empire; for lighting the flood barriees which pass upon the agricultural population; and for protecting the rocks and birds of those islands from the importation of disease.

Important measures have also received my sanction, for the settlement of trade disputes, for the prevention of explosions in mines, which have caused the loss of many valuable lives; for amending the Truck Act, for the construction of light railways, for the amendment of the Irish Land Laws, and for facilitating the creation by a larger class of occupying freeholders in Ireland.

In bidding you farewell, I pray that the blessing of Providence may rest upon all your labours; C.L. 458.

The appalling massacres which have taken place in Constantinople and in other parts of the Ottoman Dominions have called for the special attention of the Powers who were Signatories to the Treaty of Paris. Papers will be laid before you showing the considerations which have induced the Powers to make the present condition of the Ottoman Empire the subject of special consultation by their Representatives at Constantinople. The conferences which the Six Ambassadors have been instructed to hold are still proceeding.

The action undertakings by His Highness the Khedive of Egypt against the Khalifa, with My approval and assistance, has so far been entirely successful. His forces, supported by My officers and troops, have won back the fertile Province of Dongola by civilisation by operations conducted with remarkable skill, and the way has been opened for a further advance whenever such a step shall be judged to be desirable.

My Government have discussed with the United States, acting as the friend of Venezuela, the terms under which the pending questions of disputed frontier between that Republic and My Colony of British Guiana may be equitably submitted to General Arbitration with the President of the United States, by which I trust that all differences that may arise between us will be peaceably adjusted. I hope that this arrangement may have a further value in commending to other Powers the consideration of a principle by which the danger of war may be notably averted.

The rebellion in Matabeleland and Mashonaland has been represented by the astonishment and concern of the settalors, reinforced by My troops and by volunteers, both of English and Dutch races, from other parts of South Africa. I deplore the loss of valuable lives which those operations have entailed.

The depressed condition of the sugar industry in My West Indian Colonies has seriously affected their prosperity, and I have appointed a Commission to investigate its causes, and, if possible, to suggest means for its amelioration.

It is with much regret and with feelings of the deepest sympathy that I have heard that owing to the failure of the autumn rains, scarcity and famine affect a large portion of My Dominions in India. My Government in that country are making every effort to mitigate suffering and to lessen the calamity. The development of railways and irrigation works, and the forethought given through a long series of years to the preparation of the most effective appliances for alleviating the distress caused by famine, make their task more hopeful than in previous visitations. My people throughout My Dominions at home and in India have been invited to accord with their liberality the exertions of My Government.

Plague

Plague has also made its appearance in the respect towns of Bombay and Karachi, and, notwithstanding the precautions adopted by the local authorities, shows no signs of decrease. I have directed My Government to take the most stringent measures for the eradication of the pestilence.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons.—The Estimates for the year will be laid before you. While desires of guarding against undue expenditure, I have felt that the present condition of the world will not permit you to depart from the spirit of prudent forethought in which you have during recent years provided for the defense of My Empire.

My Lords and Gentlemen.—A measure for the promotion of Primary Education, by securing the maintenance of Voluntary Schools, will be laid before you. If time permits, you will be invited to consider further proposals for Educational Legislation.

It is desirable to make better provision for the compensation of workpeople who suffer from accidents in the course of their employment; and a Bill, having that object in view, will be submitted to you.

Your consent will be asked to provisions which, in the judgment of the military authorities, are required for supplying the efficiency of the military defenses of the Empire.

A Bill will be submitted to you to improve the arrangements for water supply in this Metropolis. In order to promote the interests of agriculture, which are of paramount importance in Ireland, you will be asked to consider a Bill for the establishment of a Board of Agriculture in that country.

Further legislative proposals will be brought before you, if the time at your disposal allows for their purpose.

Bills for admitting the evidence of accused persons, for amending the law with respect to bills of sale and the registration of land, for revising the Acts with respect to the formation and administration of Limited Companies, for the amendment of the Agricultural Holdings Act in Great Britain, for the exclusion of the goods manufactured in the prisons of other countries, for the establishment of Reformatory schools for inmates, and for amending the existing procedure with respect to Private Bills coming from Scotland and Ireland, have been prepared, and, if opportunity for considering them should be found, will be laid before you.

I heartily commend your important deliberations to the guidance of Almighty God; CLII. 8.

15. August 6, 1897. My Lords and Gentlemen.—At the close of a Session during which there has been disturbance and conflict in Europe, I am glad to be able to inform you that the cordiality of My relations with Foreign Powers remains unchanged.

The united influence of the Six Powers, signatories to the Treaty of Paris, was earnestly desired early in the year to dissipate the King of Greece from the war upon which he undertook a few months later. Though they failed in this noble effort, they were able to bring about an early suspension of hostilities between the two belligerents, and to open negotiations for peace. These proceeding have been protracted, and a formal Treaty has not yet been signed. The question of an autonomous Government for the Island of Crete has concluded the attention of the Powers. The difficulty of arriving at a unanimous agreement upon some points has made prolonged their deliberations, but I hope that these discussions will before long be surmounted.

Intelligence, which is apparently trustworthy, has been received of the intention of the Khalifa to advance against the Egyptian Army in the Soudan, and I have therefore given directions that a contingent of British troops should be despatched to Berber to the assistance of His Highness the Khalife.

I have concluded a Treaty of Friendship and Commerce with His Majesty the Emperor of Abyssinia.

The Report of the Commission which I appointed in December last to inquire into the condition of certain of My West Indian Colonies has conclusively established the existence of severe depression in those Colonies caused by a heavy fall in the prices of sugar, which is usually attributable to the reduction in the cost of production and the great increase in its extent during recent years.

But this fall has been artificially stimulated by the system of bounties to the producers and manufacturers of beetroot sugar maintained in many European States. There are signs of a growing opinion in the United States that this system is injurious to the general interest of their population; and communications are are now in progress between My Government and the Governments of other Powers, with a view to the amendment of the subject, which I trust may result in the abolition of the bounties.

In the meantime, measures will be proposed to you for the relief of the immediate necessities of the West Indian Colonists, for encouraging other industries, and for assisting those engaged in sugar cultivation to tide over the present crisis.

On the north-western borders of My Indian Empire an organised outbreak of fanaticsism, which spread in the summer along the frontier, induced many of the tribes to break their engagements with My Government, to attack military posts in their vicinity, and even to invade a settled district of my territory. I was compelled to send expeditions against the offending tribes for the punishement of these outrages, and to insure peace in the future. A portion of the Afriid tribes have not yet accepted the terms offered to them, but elsewhere the operations have been brought to a successful close.

The courage and endurance exhibited by My troops, British and Native, have overcome the almost insuperable difficulties of the country in which they were operating; but I have to deplore the loss of many valuable lives both amongst My own troops and those whose services were voluntarily and loyally placed at My disposal by the Native Princes of My Indian Empire.

Pending on this subject will be laid before you.

The plague, which appeared more than a year ago in Western India, returned in the autumn; and, although the mortality is less alarming than it was at this time last year, it is still such as to cause anxiety. No effort will be spared by My Government in the endeavour both to limit its extent and to mitigate its effects; and I am confident that they will receive the loyal assistance of My Indian subjects in this arduous task. I rejoice, on the other hand, to inform you that the famine which pre-valled for many months over several large districts may now be considered to have passed, and I may announce the cessation of these important questions.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons.—The Estimates for the service of the year will be laid before you. They have been framed with the utmost desire for economy; but in view of the enormous expenditures which are now maintained by other nations, the duty of providing for the defence of the Empire is one which no government can evade.

My Lords and Gentlemen.—A measure for the Amendment of the Vaccination Law will be introduced to your notice.

Proposals, having for their object to secure increased strength and efficiency in the Navy and for ameliorating the present conditions of Military service, will be submitted to you.

Commissions for enabling officers to be heard as witnesses in their own defence, and for enforcing and promoting the procedure of Scottish Private Bill legislation have been before Parliament on many previous occasions. I trust that in the case of the present a final decision may be given upon these important questions.

A measure for facilitating the creation of municipalities in the Administrative County of London will be brought before you.

A measure for the Amendment of the Vaccination Law will be recommended to your notice.

Proposals for the prevention of certain recognised abuses in connection with Church Patronage, for the Constitution of a Teaching University for Ireland, and for the Amendment of the Law relating to Prisons, will be placed before you in case the time at my disposal should permit you to proceed with them.

I heartily commend your momentous deliberations to the care and guidance of Almighty God; CLIII. 11.

The expedition against the Dervishes, conducted with brilliant success by Sir Herbert Kitchener and the Officers serving under him, has resulted in the fall of Omdurman and the complete subjugation of the territories which had been brought under the dominion of the Khalifa. I am proud to acknowledge the distinguished bravery and conduct of the British and Egyptian troops who have won this victory. My Officers are engaged in conjunction with those of His Highness the Khedive in the establishment of order in the country under his authority. The Powers who have been in the occupation of Crete have delegated the authority necessary for the government of the island to His Highness Prince George of Greece. The restoration of peace and order resulting from the establishment of His Royal Highness’s Government has been gladly welcomed by the Cretons of both religions.

His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of Russia has summoned a Conference to consider the possibility of limiting the vast armaments which impose so heavy a burden on every nation. I have gladly signified my willingness to take part in its deliberations. A profound impression has been created by the appalling crime which has robbed the people of Austria-Hungary of their beloved Emperor. A Conference, at which My delegates were present, was summoned at Rome to consider the dangers of the present time. I was not able to concur in all the resolutions proposed at the Conference, some amendments in the present laws of the Realm upon this subject appear to be required, and will be submitted for your consideration.

Some of My West Indian Colonies have been visited by a hurricane of extraordinary violence, causing loss of life and great destruction of houses and other property. The consequent distress of the poorer inhabitants was promptly relieved, as far as possible, by the strenuous exertions of the local authorities, and by contributions of money from other Colonies and from the United Kingdom. I have learned with great satisfaction that the Parliament of the Cape of Good Hope has recognised the principle of a common responsibility for the Naval defence of My Empire by providing for a permanent annual contribution towards that object.

In parts of My Indian Empire I grieve to say the plague has met with a considerable measure of success, and the action of the South African Republic, the condition of the tithes in that country, the removal of an injustice in regard to the incidence of rates on tithesrent-charge payer in that country; for providing a more complete distribution of water supply in cases of emergency in the Metropolis; for the regulation of limited companies; for the consolidation of the Factory Acts in certain respects; and for amending the Law rendering it necessary that Parliament should be called to consider the law necessary for the purpose of providing for the expenditure laid before you for the purpose of providing for the expenditure of the ensuing year will be laid before you.

I have had great satisfaction in giving My assent to a Bill for completing the organisation of Municipal Government in Ireland. I do not doubt that the inhabitants of the various portions of this Metropolis will derive from it the benefits which similar institutions have conferred upon other cities and towns in this country.

I have also gladly sanctioned Bills for the simplification of private legislation in Scotland, for the encouragement of agricultural and technical education in Ireland, for the better distribution of the supply of water in the Metropolis, for the removal of an injustice in regard to the incidence of rates on tithesrent-charge payer in that country; for providing a more complete distribution of water supply in cases of emergency in the Metropolis; for the regulation of limited companies; for the consolidation of the Factory Acts in certain respects; and for amending the Law regulating the conditions under which either Government may sell or lease any of its property to private individuals. The measure has been introduced for encouraging agricultural and technical education in Ireland, for the better distribution of the supply of water in the Metropolis, for the removal of an injustice in regard to the incidence of rates on tithesrent-charge payer in that country; for providing a more complete distribution of water supply in cases of emergency in the Metropolis; for the regulation of limited companies; for the consolidation of the Factory Acts in certain respects; and for amending the Law regulating the conditions under which either Government may sell or lease any of its property to private individuals. SPEECHES—continued. 751

My Lords and Gentlemen.—There are many subjects of domestic interest to which your attention will be directed at a later period, when the ordinary session for the labours of a Parliamentary Session has been reached. For the present I have invited your attention in order to ask you to deal with an exceptional exigency, and I pray that, in performing the duties which claim your attention, you may have the guidance and blessing of Almighty God. [CLIV. 632]

21. October 27, 1899.—My Lords and Gentlemen.—I am happy to be able to release you from the exceptional duties which have been imposed upon you by the exigencies of the public service.

I congratulate you on the brilliant qualities which have been displayed by the brave regiments upon whom the task of repelling the invasion of my South African Colonies has been laid. In doing so, I cannot but express my profound sorrow that so many gallant officers and soldiers should have fallen in the performance of their duty.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons.—I acknowledge with gratitude the moral pressure which you have so kindly brought to bear in order to effect the desirable operation of restoring peace and good government to that portion of my Empire, and to vindicate the honour of this Country; CLIV. 449.

22. January 30, 1900.—My Lords and Gentlemen.—The period which has recently been broken in South Africa when last I addressed you has unhappily not been restored; but otherwise my relations with other States are friendly.

In resisting the invasion of my South African Colonies by the South African Republic and by the Orange Free State, My troops have displayed with devotion and enthusiasm with which I have to be proud, and the heroism of My soldiers in the field, and of My sailors and marines who have been forced to co-operate with them, has not fallen short of the noblest traditions of my military history. I am deeply grieved that so many valuable lives should have fallen a sacrifice. But I have witnessed with pride and with the heartiest gratification the patriotic earnestness and spontaneous loyalty with which My subjects in all parts of My dominions have come forward to share in the common defence of their Imperial interests. I am confident that I shall not fail to look in vain when I exhort them to sustain and renew their exertions until they have brought to an end this struggle for the maintenance of the Empire and the assertion of its supremacy in South Africa to a victorious conclusion.

A Treaty has been concluded with the German Emperor for the adjustment of rights claimed by the two Countries in Samoa, Tonga, and other islands in the Pacific. The British and other Legations at Peking have been reopened.

I have given My assent with sincere pleasure to the Act establishing the Commonwealth of Australia, which will weld together in close and indissoluble union the federated Colonies, and will add to the strength and resources of this portion of My Empire.

The war in South Africa, into which this Country has been forced by the aggressive action of the two Dutch Republics, has not yet ended in its conclusion; but My Governments in the Cape, in the Transvaal, in the Orange Free State, and in the Transvaal Limpopo, have occupied the two capitals of the enemy and much of his territory. The operations which have been conducted for the purpose have in many parts been marked by brilliant skill and success, and have placed in the strongest light the heroism and the high military qualities of the troops who have been brought together under My banner from this Country, from Canada, from Australia, and from My South African possessions.

Believing that the continued political independence of the two Republics would be a constant danger to the peace of South Africa, I have authorised the establishment of the Orange Free State to My Empire. I trust that this will be the first step towards the union of races under institutions which, while establishing from the outset good and just government for all, may be in the future adapted to secure equal rights and privileges to My South African dominions.

The British and other Legations at Peking have been reopened, and My relations with the Chinese authorities are friendly, and it is feared that many of My subjects in China may have been murdered. How far My Chinese authors were accomplices in this atrocious crime, and whether the British and My Allies have been in any way implicated in it or among the victims, are matters that are still in some uncertainty. The utmost efforts will be made by Myself and My Allies to prevent such occurrences from recurring. I have sent a considerable force of British and Indian troops to the southern parts of the Indian Archipelago, and the British and My Allies have been instructed to assist in protecting the interests of Europeans in that country, and to have largely reinforced My squadron in those waters.

I regret that arising from the Ashanti and other tribes in the neighbourhood of Kumasi has made it necessary to despatch an expedition to a portion that a rising of the Ashanti and other tribes in the neighbourhood of Kumasi has made it necessary to despatch an expedition expedition for the relief of that place, where the Governor of the Colony was besieged by overwhelming numbers. I have learned with satisfaction that My troops, which consist entirely of local levies under British Officers, have effected the object of the expedition, in spite of the stubborn resistance of the insurgent tribes and the great difficulties of climate and season with which they have had to contend.

In My Indian dominions the failure of the rains last autumn has caused intense and prolonged distress over a large part of the country. Sereneous and persistent endeavours have been made by My Governments to relieve suffering and prevent starvation. The self-denying efforts of My officers, and of the many private persons who have joined in the relief operations, deserve the highest commendation.

Though the fall of rain this season has been abnormally late, it is hoped that its volume may be sufficient to rapidly curtail the present area of distress, and restore to the people their previous means of livelihood.

The epidemic of plague continues, but the extent and violence of the disease have decreased, and there has been a marked diminution in the mortality.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons.—I thank you for the liberality with which you have responded to the conscientious demands I have been compelled to make on you. The satisfactory progress of the campaign in South Africa gives fair ground for hoping that the excessive requirements of Military expenditure will be soon abated.

My Lords, and Gentlemen.—Though the time has not been favourable to legislation upon internal questions, I congratulate you on having added to the Statute Book several enactments which will be advantageous to industry and commerce. The passage of a measure for increasing the security of tenant-farmers in the value of their own improvements, and for extending the law of compensation for accidents to the farm labourers, will have a beneficial influence upon agriculture. A valuable Bill has been passed with the object of preventing the accidents to which railway servants have been exposed in the performance of their duty.

The Bill for the regulation of Limited Companies, and for the discovery of fraud in the conduct of them, will supply a want that has long been keenly felt. The Bill that has been passed for regulating the business of money lenders will also tend to check transactions of an oppressive and injurious character.

The measures you have passed for facilitating the erection of dwellings for the working classes will afford some assistance in the solution of a problem of which the difficulty appears to increase with every succeeding year.

The Ecclesiastical Assessments (Scotland) and the Tithe Rent-Charge (Ireland) Acts will remove long-standing causes of friction and injustice. Measures have also been passed for augmenting our naval reserves, and for rendering our volunteer forces more available for purposes of home defence.

I pray that Almighty God may have you in His keeping, and that His blessing may be with you; CLIV. 401.

24. December 6, 1900.—My Lords and Gentlemen.—It has become necessary to make further provision for the expenses incurred by the operation of My Armies in South Africa and China.

I have summoned you to hold a Special Session in order that you may give your sanction to the enactments required for this purpose. I will not enter upon other public matters requiring your attention until the ordinary meeting of Parliament in the Spring; CLIV. 412.

25. December 16, 1900.—My Lords and Gentlemen.—I thank you for the liberal provision which you have made for the expenses incurred by the operations of My Armies in South Africa and China; CLV. 421.

II. Standing Orders relative to Private Business:

1. New Standing Orders made—continued.

Procedure in cases of Bills promoted by the London County Council:

56. [1890—91.] 194a. That any Act has conferred upon the London County Council any power involving the expenditure of money for any purpose after the then current financial period, or has extended any such power, it shall not be competent for the Committee on any Bill authorising the borrowing and expenditure of money for the same purpose during a subsequent financial period, except in pursuance of an express instruction from the House, to reduce the total amount of money shown by the estimates in the Bill as required for the execution of the power.

194b. That a Bill complying with the conditions specified in Standing Order 194, if it contains no powers or provisions in relation to the Consolidated Loans Fund or to borrowing by the council, shall be subject to the following requirements, that is to say—

(1.) The petition for the Bill, with the declaration and printed copy of the Bill annexed, shall be deposited in the Private Bill Office on or before the 14th day of April, or the first day on which the House shall reassemble after the Easter Recess, whichever shall be the later, instead of the 21st day of December in the previous year;

(2.) Notice of such Bill shall be published in the months of February and March, or either of them, instead of in the months of October and November in the previous year;

(3.) Copies of the Bill shall be deposited with the Treasury and the Local Government Board on or before the day on which the petition for the Bill is deposited in the Private Bill Office;

(4.) The petition for the Bill may be presented forthwith, and the Bill shall be presented for first reading not later than the second sitting day after the presentation of the petition, and to be ordered for its first reading, be referred to the Examiner, who shall give two clear days’ notice at the Private Bill Office of the day appointed for the examination thereof, and the Bill shall not be ready a second time until the Examiner has reported whether the preceding requirements of this order have been complied with;

(5.) Whenever the Bill is amended at any stages, a copy of the Bill so amended shall be forthwith deposited with the Treasury and Local Government Board;

(6.) The tables accompanying the Bill, as required by section 12 of “The Metropolitan Board of Works Loans Act, 1872,” shall be made up to the 31st day of March preceding the last day allowed for the deposit of the Bill, and if printed copies of those tables have been deposited in the Private Bill Office, and at the Vote Office, and with the Treasury and Local Government Board, at least one clear day before the second reading of the Bill, it shall be sufficient if those tables are prefixed to the Bill as brought up for second reading in this House.

194c. That no Bill promoted by the London County Council shall authorise any alteration of the mode of dealing with the Unincorporated Loans Fund, or of borrowing by the council, unless a report of the Treasury on the proposed alteration is presented to the House and referred to the Committee on the Bill. The Committee shall consider the report, and may, if

That the Promoters of every Private Bill which shall have been introduced into this House, or brought from the House of Lords in the present Session of Parliament, shall have leave to suspend any further proceeding thereupon, in order to proceed with the same Bill in the next Session of Parliament.

2. That the Promoters of every such Bill shall give notice in the Private Bill Office, not later than the day prior to the close of the present Session, of their intention to suspend any further proceedings thereupon; or, in the case of Bills which shall have been suspended on the Report of a Committee, or which, having passed this House, shall then be pending in the House of Lords, of their intention to proceed with the same Bill in this House in the next Session.

3. That an Alphabetical List of all such Bills, with a statement of the stage at which the same was suspended, shall be prepared by the Private Bill Office, and printed.

4. That, not less than three clear days after the next meeting of Parliament, every Bill which has been introduced into this House shall be deposited in the Private Bill Office, in the form required by Standing Order No. 201, with declaration signed by the Agent annexed thereto, stating that the Bill is the same, in every respect, as the Bill with respect to which proceedings have been so suspended, at the last stage of its proceedings in the House in the present Session; and, where any sum of money has been deposited, that such deposit has not been withdrawn, together with a certificate of that fact from the proper officer of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice in England or Ireland, or the Court of Session in Scotland, as the case may be.

5. That such Bills, indorsed by one of the Clerks in the Private Bill Office, as having been duly deposited with such declarations and certificates annexed, be laid by one of the Clerks of that Office upon the Table of the House, in the next Session of Parliament, in the order in which they shall stand upon such List.

6. That in respect of every Bill so laid upon the Table, the Petition for the Bill and the Order for Leave to bring in the same in the present Session shall be read, and thereupon such Bill shall be read a first time; and a second time (if the Bill shall have been read a second time previously to its being suspended) ; and if such Bill shall have been reported by any Committee in the present Session, the Order for referring the Bill to such Committee shall be dispensed with, and the Bill ordered to lie upon the Table, or to be read a third time, as the case may be.

7. That in case any Bill brought from the House of Lords in the present Session upon which the proceedings shall have been suspended in this House, shall be brought from the House of Lords in the next Session of Parliament, the Agent for such Bill shall deposit in the Private Bill Office, prior to the first reading thereof, a declaration stating that the Bill is the same, in every respect, as the Bill which was brought from the House of Lords in the present Session; and where any sum of money has been deposited, that such deposit has not been withdrawn, together with a certificate of that fact from the proper officer; and as soon as one of the Clerks in the Private Bill Office has certified that such deposit has been duly made, the Bill shall be read a first time, and be further proceeded with in the same manner as Bills introduced into this House during the present Session.

8. That all Petitions presented in the present Session against any Private Bills, or against any Bill to confirm any Provisdional Order or Certificate, and which stood referred to the Committee on such Bills, shall stand referred to the Committee on the same Bills in the next Session of Parliament; and that all Notices and grounds of objection to the right of Petitioners to be heard given in the present Session within the time prescribed by the Rules of the Referees relating to such Notices shall be laid applicable in the next Session of Parliament.

9. That no Petitioners shall be heard before the Committee on such Bills, unless their Petition shall have been presented within the time limited in the present Session.

10. That in case the time limited for presenting Petitions against any such Bills shall not have expired at the close of

Deposit of Plans, &c., as aforesaid, and the deposit fund so specified in such certificate as aforesaid to be sufficient evidence of the facts therein certified; and the same may be paid or transferred to them, or as they shall direct; and the following effect shall be inserted, viz.:

(1.) If the Company do not, previously to the expiration of the period limited by this Act for completion of the Railway [Tramway or Subway] hereby authorised to be made (or the time for completion which is hereby extended) complete the said Railway [Tramway or Subway] and open it for public traffic [or, if a passenger Railway, for the public conveyance of passengers], then and in every such case the deposit fund, or so much thereof as shall not have been paid to the depositors, or any sum of money recovered by way of penalty as aforesaid shall be applicable, and after due notice in the “London Gazette,” or in any other newspaper the Company may require, shall be applied towards compensating any landowners or other persons whose property may have been interfered with, or otherwise rendered less valuable, by such compulsory powers of taking property conferred upon the Company by this Act (and also in the case of a Tramway) in respect of any time during which it shall appear, by a certificate of the Board of Trade, that the Company was not possessed of a Railway, Tramway, or Subway, already tended; and in making good all damage caused to such roads by the construction or abandonment of such Tramway, and for which injury or loss no compensation or inadequate compensation shall have been paid, and shall be distributed in satisfaction of such compensation as aforesaid, in such manner and in such proportions as to the Court seem fit; and if no such compensation shall be payable, or if a portion of the deposit fund (or of the sum or sums of money recovered by way of penalty as aforesaid) shall have been found sufficient to satisfy all just claims in respect of such compensation, then the Deposit Fund (or the sum or sums of money recovered by way of penalty as aforesaid), or such portion thereof as may be required as aforesaid, shall, if a receiver has been appointed, or the Company is insolvent and has been ordered to be wound up, or the undertaking has been abandoned, be paid or transferred to such receiver, or to the liquidator or liquidators of the Company, or be applied, in the discretion of the Court, as compensation as aforesaid, in such manner and in such proportions as to the Court seem fit; and if no such compensation shall be payable, be paid to or on the application of the depositors.

N.B.—If the clause lettered (a) is inserted in the Bill, the Provision at the end of the Clause lettered (c) shall be omitted.

(b.) If the Railway [or Tramway] authorised by this Act shall not be completed within the period limited by this Act, then, on the expiration of such period, the powers by this Act granted to the Company for making and completing the said Railway [or Tramway], or otherwise in relation thereto, shall cease to be exercised, except as to so much thereof as shall then be completed.

The sum or sums of money recovered by way of penalty as aforesaid, or such portion thereof as may be required as aforesaid, shall, if a receiver has been appointed, or the Company is insolvent and has been ordered to be wound up, or the undertaking has been abandoned, be paid or transferred to such receiver, or to the liquidator or liquidators of the Company, or be applied, in the discretion of the Court, as compensation as aforesaid, in such manner and in such proportions as to the Court seem fit; and if no such compensation shall be payable, be paid to or on the application of the depositors.

In every Railway Bill, Tramway Bill or Subway Bill whereby the construction of any new line is authorised, or the time for completing such line is extended; if such Bill be promoted by an existing Railway Company, Tramway Company, or Subway Company which is not possessed of a Railway, Tramway, or Subway, already tended; then be completed.

Letters Patent.

82. [1890-91.] Standing Order 172 of 1890.—When any Bill shall be brought into the House for restoring any Letters Patent, there shall be a true Copy of such Letters Patent amended to the extent, by adding at the end of the Standing Order the words: "and the total amount of fees (including the prescribed fee for enlargement under Section 17 of "The Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act, 1887") due to become due on the patent, shall be deposited with the Comptroller General of Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks, before the meeting of the Committee on the Bill, and such deposit proved before the Committee"; CXLVI. 494.

Houses of the Labouring Classes.

83. [1889-90.] Standing Order 183 of 1889.—In the case of every Bill which contains power to take land compulsorily or by agreement, or which extends the time for taking land compulsorily or by agreement, clauses shall be inserted—

(I) Providing that the Promoters shall not, in the exercise of such power, purchase or acquire in any parish in the metropolis, twenty or more houses, or as regards England and Wales exclusive of the metropolis, in any city, borough, or other urban sanitary district, or in any parish or part of a parish not being within an urban sanitary district, or in Scotland in any district within the meaning of "The Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1878," or in Ireland in any urban sanitary district as defined by "The Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878," ten or more houses, occupied either wholly or partially by persons belonging to the labouring class as defined by this Order, as tenants or lodgers, unless and until

(a) They shall have obtained the approval of the Central Authority to a scheme for providing new dwellings for the persons residing in such houses, or for such number or proportion of such persons as the Central Authority shall, after inquiry, deem necessary, having regard to the number of persons residing in the houses liable to be taken and working within one mile therefrom, and to the amount of vacant suitable accommodation in the immediate neighbourhood of the houses liable to be taken, or to the place of employment of such persons, and to all the other circumstances of the case; and

(b) They shall have given security for the satisfaction of the Central Authority for the carrying out of the scheme;

(II) Imposing adequate penalties on the promoters in the event of houses being acquired or appropriated for the purposes of the Bill in contravention of the foregoing provisions; and

(III) Conferring on the promoters and on the Central Authority respectively any powers that may be necessary to enable full effect to be given to the said scheme;

The Committee on the Bill may provide that the expenses or any part of the expenses incurred by the Central Authority under this Order shall be defrayed by the promoters of the Bill, or out of money to be raised under the Bill.

In this Standing Order and in Standing Order No. 38, the expression "labouring class" includes mechanics, artisans, labourers, and others working for wages, hawkers, conmenmovers, persons not working for wages but working at some trade or handicraft without employing others except members of their own family, and persons, other than domestic servants, whose income does not exceed an average of thirty shillings a week, and the families of any such persons who may be residing with them:

The expression "the Metropolis" means the Metropolis as defined by the Metropolis Management Act, 1855:

The expression "Central Authority" means, as regards the Metropolis, the Secretary of State for the Home Department, and as regards Scotland, the Secretary for Scotland, and as regards England and Wales, exclusive of the Metropolis, the Local Government Board, and as regards Ireland the Local Government Board for Ireland:

The word "Bill" includes a Bill confirming a Provisional Order, amended, in I. 1, by leaving out the word "contains," and inserting the words "gives, revokes, or extends"; & CXLVI. 494.

No powers to be given to Local Authorities to place or run carriages upon Tramways or Railways—continued.

84. [1891.] Standing Order 171 of 1891.—No powers shall be given to any Municipal Corporation, Local Board, Improvement Commissioners, or other local authority, to place or run carriages upon any Tramway, and to demand and take tolls and charges in respect of the use of such carriages. Amended by adding at the end thereof the words—

"Provided that where any tramways have been constructed or acquired, or are authorised by the Bill to be constructed or acquired by the local authority, the Committee on the Bill may, if they think fit, under the special circumstances of the case, insert a Clause to the following effect—

"If the local authority are unable to dispose of the tramways upon such terms as in the opinion of the Board of Trade will yield to the local authority an adequate rent therefor, the Board of Trade may grant a licence to the local authority to work such tramways, and the local authority may therupon work the same, and may provide such plant, materials, and additions as may be requisite or convenient therefor; and in such case all enactments relating to the working of the tramways and the taking of tolls and charges therefor shall extend and apply mutatis mutandis to and in relation to the local authority: Provided that if at any time during such working by the local authority any company makes in the local authority a tender in writing to take a lease of and to work the tramways for such period (not being less than seven years, unless the local authority shall otherwise agree) at such rent and upon such terms and conditions as shall be in the opinion of the Board of Trade be adequate and proper, and such company at the same time offer to purchase the houses, catties, engines, and fixed and moveable plant of the local authority not included in such lease, at a price to be fixed, unless otherwise agreed upon between such company and the local authority, by a competent valuer to be appointed by the Board of Trade; then upon payment of such price the local authority shall demise the tramways to such company at such rent and upon such terms and conditions, and the powers of the local authority to work the tramways shall cease and determine.

"And the Committee shall report the circumstances specially to the House"; CXLVI. 446.

Application of Provisions of "The Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888," as to Revision of Rates:

107. [1894.] 'Standing Order 16a of 1893.—In the case of every Bill for incorporating a Railway, Canal, or Transferred Company, or for giving any powers to an existing Railway, Canal, or Transferred Company to which no Rates and Charges Order Confirmation Act expressly applies, the Committee on the Bill shall fix the Rates and Charges for merchandise traffic (including small parcels of a perishable nature conveyed by passenger train) by reference to the Rates and Charges Order Confirmation Act of some other Company which, in the opinion of the Committee, will properly and conveniently apply; and the Committee shall, in the case of an existing Company, provide that the Rates and Charges for merchandise traffic, and such small parcels as aforesaid if fixed, shall be in substitution for the Rates and Charges for similar traffic authorised to be taken by the Company under their existing Acts.

If in any such Bill other than a Railway Bill the Committee shall be of opinion that such Act as aforesaid will properly and conveniently apply, they shall insert a Clause to the following effect—

SECTION 24 of "The Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888," and any enactment which may be passed in the present or any future Session of Parliament extending or modifying that enactment shall, with any necessary modifications, apply to the Company in all respects as if it were one of the Companies to which the provisions of the said enactment in terms applied.
Provided that the time within which the revised schedule of maximum rates and charges prescribed by the said section shall be submitted to the Board of Trade shall be three years from the date of the passing of this Act, or such further time as the Board of Trade may permit; amended in l. 7, by inserting,

Meeting of Members of Limited Companies, &c., in the case of certain Bills originating in this House:

129. [1896] Standing Order 65 of 1895. In the case of every Bill brought from the House of Lords, in which provisions have been inserted in that House empowering or requiring any Company, Society, Association, or Co-partnership formed or registered under the Companies Act, 1862, or constituted by Act of Parliament, Royal Charter, Letters Patent, Deed of Settlement, Contract of Co-partnership, Cost Book Regulations, or other Instrument or Instruments, and under the management of a Committee, or Directors or Trustees, not being a Company to which the preceding Order applies, to do any act not authorised by the Memorandum and Articles of Association of such Company, or other instrument constituting or regulating such Company, Society, Association, or Co-partnership, the Examiner shall report as to its compliance or non-compliance with the following Order:

In the case of a Company formed or registered under the Companies Act, 1862,
A copy of such special resolution or certificate of consent shall be deposited in the Private Bill Office.

Provided always, that if by the terms of such special resolution or consent the Bill as introduced or proposed to be introduced into the House of Lords shall have been approved or consented to, subject to such additional alterations, and variations, as Parliament may think fit to make therein, then it shall not be necessary for the purposes of this Order to obtain any further approval or consent in respect of any provisions inserted in the Bill in the House of Lords: Provided nevertheless that it shall be competent for the Committee on the Bill, if they think fit, having regard to the nature and extent of such provisions, to require any further evidence of the approval or consent to such provisions on the part of the shareholders or members of the Company, Society, Association, or Co-partnership.

The names of the proprietors or members present in person at the meeting shall be recorded by the Company, Society, Association, or Co-partnership. For this purpose the meeting, and any other consecutive meetings, whether general or special, and whether proceeding or following it, shall be deemed to be the same meeting.

A poll may be demanded by any one proprietor or member present in person at the meeting, notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained in any instrument constituting or regulating the Company, Society, Association, or Co-partnership.

If a poll is taken, there shall be deposited in the Private Bill Office a statement of the number of votes.

So far as any such Bill relates to a separate class of proprietors or members of any Company, Society, Association, or Co-partnership as distinct from the proprietors or members generally, such Bill shall be approved or consented to by the proprietors or members generally, and also by the separate class of proprietors or members; and the provisions of this Order applicable to the proprietors or members generally shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the separate class of proprietors or members, and amended in 1. 15, by inserting, after the word "thereof," the words "or in which any such provisions originally contained in the Bill have been materially altered in that House, or by which any such powers are conferred on any company, society, association, or co-partnership not being the Promoters of the Bill;" CLI. 446.

Clause that no Interest or Dividend be paid on Calls.—

120. [1895.] Standing Order 167 of 1895—A Clause shall be inserted in every Railway Bill prohibiting the payment of any Interest or Dividend to any Shareholder on the share capital authorised by the Bill, except such interest or money advanced by any Shareholder beyond the amount of the Calls made in respect of the shares held by him; and except such interest or money advanced by any Shareholder beyond the amount of the Calls actually made as is in conformity with the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or the Companies Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Acts, 1845, as the case may be; and except such interest (if any) as the Committee on the Bill may, according to the circumstances of the case, think fit to allow, subject always to the following conditions:

1. That the rate of interest allowed by the Committee do not in any case exceed four per centum per annum;

2. That interest be allowed to be paid in respect only of the time allowed by the Bill for the completion of the Railway, or such less time as the Committee think fit;

3. That payment of interest be not allowed to begin until the Railway Company have obtained a certificate of the Board of Trade to the effect that two thirds at least of the share capital authorised by the Bill, in respect whereof interest may be paid, have been actually issued and accepted, and are held by shareholders, who, or whose executors, administrators, successors, or assigns, are legally liable for the same;

4. That interest do not accrue in favour of any shareholder for any time during which any call on any of his shares is in arrear;

5. That the aggregate amount to be so paid for interest be estimated and stated in the Bill, and be not deemed capital within Standing Order 135.

Clause that no Interest or Dividend be paid on Calls.—

121. [1895.] Standing Order 170a, of 1895—No powers shall be given to any local authority to construct, acquire, or take on lease, any Tramway, or portion of Tramway, beyond the limits of their district, unless such Tramway or portion of Tramway is in connection with the Tramways belonging to or authorised to be constructed or acquired by the local authority, and unless the Committee on the Bill shall determine that, having regard to the special local circumstances such construction, acquisition, or taking on lease ought not to be sanctioned.

In every case in which the Committee shall so determine, they shall specify what portion of the Tramway will be subject beyond the district of the local authority to which the power of construction, acquisition, or taking on lease is given, and shall insert a clause for the protection of the local authority of the district in which such Tramway or portion of Tramway will be subject in the terms mutatis mutandis of Section 43 of "The Tramways Act, 1870," excepting that the period of seven years shall be substituted for the period of twenty-one years, and the period of three years for the period of seven years;

amended: In 1. 2, by leaving out, after the word "acquire," the word "or.";

In 1. 3, by inserting, after the words " leased," the words " or work."

In 1. 5, by leaving out, after the word "constructed," the word "or."

In 1. 5, by inserting, after the word "acquired," the words " or work."

In 1. 7, by leaving out the word "or."

think fit, under the special circumstances of the case, insert a Clause to the following effect:

If the local authority are able to demesne the Tramways upon such terms as, in the opinion of the Board of Trade, will yield to the local authority an adequate rent therefor, the Board of Trade may grant a licence to the local authority to work such Tramways, and the local authority may thereupon work the same, and may provide such plant, materials, and things as may be requisite or convenient for the purpose; and in such case all enactments relating to the working of the Tramways and the taking of tolls and charges therefor, shall extend and apply mutatis mutandis, and in relation to the local authority: Provided that if at any time during such working by the local authority any Company make to the local authority a tender in writing to take a house of and to work the Tramways for such period (not being less than seven years, unless the local authority shall otherwise agree) at such rent and upon such terms and conditions as shall, in the opinion of the Board of Trade, be adequate and proper, and such Company at the same time offer to purchase the houses, cars, engines, and fixed and movable plant of the local authority not included in such lease, at a price to be fixed, unless otherwise agreed on between such Company and the local authority, by a competent valuer to be appointed by the Board of Trade; then upon payment of such price the local authority shall demise the Tramways to such Company at such rent and upon such terms and conditions, and the powers of the local authority to work the Tramways shall cease during the continuance of such lease.

(B.) Where the local authority are empowered to work any Tramways belonging to, or acquired by them, the Committee on the Bill may, if they think fit under the special circumstances of the case, empower the local authority to enter into agreements for running powers over any Tramways in connection with the Tramways so worked or to be worked by them, and such running powers shall be deemed to be a purpose of "The Public Health Act, 1875," and the expenses of the exercise of such powers shall, in the event of deficiency in the Tramway account, be defrayed out of a local duty, as defined by "The Tramways Act, 1870." Provided that in any such case the Committee on the Bill shall make provision—

(1) That so such agreement shall have effect until approved by the Board of Trade;
(2) That all covenants, conditions, and regulations relating to the use of or the running of carriages upon the Tramways, and the taking of tolls and charges thereon, shall, so far as applicable, extend and apply mutatis mutandis to, and shall be regulated by, the local authority exercising such running powers;
(3) That such running powers shall, in no case be exclusive, and shall cease unconditionally at the expiration of seven years from the date of the agreement;
(4) That further agreements for the exercise of such running powers may be made from time to time with the approval of the Board of Trade for any period not exceeding seven years, provided that such powers shall cease unconditionally at the expiration of the period for which the same are given;
(5) That all questions in dispute as to the construction of or the interpretation of each of such agreements shall be determined by arbitration.

And the Committee shall report the circumstances specially to the Board of Trade. Amended by leaving out from the beginning of the Standing Order, to the word "lease," inclusive, in 1. 33.

In 1. 34, by leaving out the word "the," and inserting the word "a";" CLI. 447.

General of the Supreme Court in Ireland (according as the railway, tramway, or subway is situated in England, Scotland, or Ireland,) in the bank named in such order, and shall not be paid therefrom except as hereinafter provided; but no penalty shall accrue in respect of any time during which it shall appear, by a certificate to be obtained from the Board of Trade, that the company was prevented from completing or opening such line by unforeseen accident or circumstances beyond their control; Provided, That the want of sufficient funds shall not be held to be a circumstance beyond their control.

Railway, Tramway, or Subway Deposits.

In every Railway Bill, Tramway Bill, or Subway Bill whereby the construction of any new line is authorised, or the time for completing any line already authorised is extended; if such Bill be passed by an existing railway company, tramway company, or company whereby construction of a railway, tramway, or subway already opened for traffic, or which has not during the year last past paid dividends on its ordinary share capital; or an existing railway company, tramway company, or company, when the capital to be raised under the Bill is greater than the existing authorised capital of the company, or the persons not already incorporated, a clause to the following effect shall be inserted, viz.:—

(B.) Whereas, pursuant to the Standing Orders of both Houses of Parliament, and to "The Parliamentary Deposits Act, 1846," a sum of £—being five per cent. upon the amount of the Estimate in respect of the railway, tramway, or subway authorised by this Act, has been deposited with the Court, that is to say, the Paymaster General for and on behalf of the Supreme Court in England [or the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or the Accountant General of the Supreme Court in Ireland, as the case may be], [or Exchequer Bills, Stock, or Funds, to the amount of £—have been deposited or transferred pursuant to the said Act], (as the case may be), in respect of the application for Parliament to the Act, (which sum, Exchequer bills, stocks, or funds, as the case may be), or are in this Act referred to as "the Deposit Fund") as hereinbefore mentioned, any matter or thing contained in the said recited Act, the deposit fund shall not be paid or transferred to or on the application of the person or persons, or the Deposit Fund (or the sum or sums of money recovered by way of penalty as aforesaid) shall have been found sufficient to satisfy any claim or claims respecting the compensation, or otherwise paid or transferred to such person or persons, or shall have been found insufficient to satisfy any such claim or claims, but no penalty shall be paid or transferred to such receiver, or to the liquidator or liquidators of the Company, or be paid, in the discretion of the Court, as part of the assets of the Company for the benefit of the creditors thereof, and subject to such application, shall be paid over to the Court, to the depositors (Company) : Provided, That until the Deposit Fund shall have been repaid to the depositors, or shall have become otherwise applicable as hereinafter mentioned, any interest or profit accruing shall be paid to or on the order of the depositors.

FN: (A.) In case of a new Railway or Tramway, or a new Subway, or a line already authorised is extended a Clause to the following effect shall be inserted, viz.:—

(D.) If the Railway [or Tramway] authorised by this Act shall not be completed within the period limited by this Act, then on the expiration of such period, the powers by this Act granted to the Company for making and completing the said Railway, [or Tramway] shall cease to be exercised, except as to such compensation, or if a portion thereof as may not have been completed, if a receiver has been appointed, or the Company is insolvent and has been ordered to be wound up, or the undertaking [in the case of a Railway or Railways in respect of which the penalty has been incurred or any part thereof], has been abandoned, be paid or transferred to such receiver, or to the liquidator or liquidators of the Company, or be applied, in the discretion of the Court, as part of the assets of the Company for the benefit of the creditors thereof, and subject to such application, shall be paid over to the Court, to the depositors (Company) : Provided, That until the Deposit Fund shall have been repaid to the depositors, or shall have become otherwise applicable as hereinafter mentioned, any interest or profit accruing shall be paid to or on the order of the depositors.

In the case of a Railway Company omit the words " and has been ordered to be wound up," and " or to the liquidator or liquidators of the Company," and where there is no deposit such the proviso.

(C.) If the Railway or Tramway authorised by this Act shall not be completed within the period limited by this Act, then on the expiration of such period, the powers by this Act granted to the Company for making and completing the said Railway [or Tramway] shall cease to be exercised, except as to so much thereof as shall then be completed. The period limited shall not in the case of a Railway line exceed the High Court's power of three years [or in the case of a new Tramway line ten years], and the extension of time for completion shall not in the case of a Railway line exceed the period of five years [or in the case of a Tramway line one year]. In the case of extension of time the additional period shall be computed from the expiration of the period limited as aforesaid.

In any Railway Bill or Tramway Bill to which the preceding provisions are not applicable, the Committee on the Bill shall make such other provision as they shall deem necessary for ensuring the completion of the line of Railway or Tramway authorised in paragraph (D), line 11, by inserting, after the word
