Complaints.

1. [1898-94.] Complaint made to the House by Mr.
Atkinson, Member for Boston, of certain entries in the Votes and Proceedings of Friday the 21st day of this instant July;
and that he had not been allowed to bring on a Motion relating to Order as a Matter of Privilege; Mr. Speaker thereupon ascertained the House with the terms of a letter addressed to him by Mr. Atkinson, and drew the attention of the House to the conduct of the honourable Member on recent recent occasions; whereupon a Motion was made, and the Question being proposed, That Mr. Atkinson be suspended from the service of the House, and be excluded from the precincts for the remainder of the Session; Mr. Atkinson was heard in his place; after which Mr. Speaker directed him to withdraw, and he withdrew accordingly.—And the said Motion was, with leave of the House, withdrawn; Order, That Mr. Atkinson be suspended from the service of the House, and be excluded from the precincts for one week; CXLVI. 481.

2. [1892-94.] Complaint.—In Committee of the whole House, on the Government of Ireland Bill.—The Committee proceeded to the Question whether the Tellers were named; for the Yes, Mr. Macnaghten and Mr. William Redmond; for the Noes, Mr. Starkey and Mr. Thomas Ellis; whereupon the complaint made by Mr. Veniard Gibbs, Member for the South Athena Division of Herfordshire, of a disorderly interruption was brought to the knowledge of the Chair. The said complaint had been first made before the Question was put, but had not then been heard by the Chairman, owing to the great disorder which had arisen in the Committee. Mr. Gibbs complained that Mr. T.
P. O'Conor, Member for the Southern Division of Leicestershire, had as usual, with repeated cries of "Judas! Judas! Judas!" the the Right Honourable Joseph Chamberlain, Member for West Birmingham, during the Committee on the Bill, when the Chairman interrupted the Debate, and Mr. Vibey Gibbs desired that those words be taken down. Thereupon the Chairman directed the Clerk to take down the words, and left the Chairman to report them to the House. Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair, whereupon the Chairman reported to Mr. Speaker that, whilst the Chairman had desired the Clerk to report the passage complained of in Division, Mr. Vibey Gibbs had complained that Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, whilst addressing the Committee, had been assailed with cries of "John! Judas! John!" by Mr. T. P. O'Connor, Member for the Scotland Division of Liverpool, and that he had directed that the words be taken down. Several Honourable Members having corroborated the statement of Mr. Gibbs, Mr. Speaker called on Mr. T. P. O'Connor to say whether he had made use of the words complained of. Mr. T. P. O'Connor admitted the use of the word, and expressed his sincere regret, and tendered his humble apologies to the House. Thereupon other Honourable Members made complaint of other cases of disorder, but Mr. Speaker intervened, and expressed his earnest hope that without retribution between Honourable Members the Committee would proceed in an orderly manner with the business of the evening; CXLVII. 469. See Privilege.

5. [1893-94.] Complaint made to the House by Mr. Sexton, Member for North Kerry, of certain passages in an Article in "The Times" Newspaper; as also by Mr. Dillon, Article read of the passage complained of constitutes a breach of privilege; CXLVII. 68. See Privilege.

6. [1893-94.] Complaint made to Mr. Henry of a letter purporting to have been written by Mr. Conybeare, directing on the conduct of the Members and of the Speaker; letter complained of read; Mr. Speaker addressed the House; after Mr. Speaker had intimated that he had then proceeded with the Motion he had intimated to submit; CXLVIII. 123. See Privilege.

7. [1893-94.] Complaint made by Mr. Hanbury of a letter written by Mr. Conybeare, selecting on the members of the House and the Speaker; letter complained of read; Mr. Speaker addressed the House; after Mr. Speaker had intimated that he had then proceeded with the Motion he had intimated to submit; CXLVIII. 124.

8. [1893-94.] Complaint made by Mr. Tritton of a letter written by Mr. Conybeare, and published in the "Daily Chronicle," reflecting on the conduct of the Speaker in the Chair; paper delivered in and letter read; Mr. Speaker addressed the House; CXLVIII. 408. Mr. Conybeare heard in his place and withdrew. Resolution, Now, Cow, that Mr. Conybeare be suspended for one week; Mr. Speaker again intimated that he had then proceeded with the Motion he had intimated to submit; CXLVIII. 417.

9. [1893-94.] Complaint made to Mr. Hartley of certain passages in a speech by Mr. Knox and reported in the "Daily Chronicle," passages complained of read; Mr. Knox heard in his place and withdrew. West Edinburgh Writ:

297. [1896.] Notice taken by Mr. Labouchere, Member for the Borough of Northampton, in the presence of this House of the Earl of Selborne, who, as Viscount Walmersley, was returned at the last Election for West Edinburgh, but had become, on the death of his father, Earl of Selborne and a Peer of the Realm; Mr. Speaker called on the Noble Lord to state whether, since the last time he took his place in the House, he had become Earl of Selborne; the Noble Lord stated that he held himself to be a Peer of the Realm, but not a Lord of Parliament; Mr. Speaker then inquires of the Noble Lord whether he had applied for his Writ of Summons to the House of Lords, or whether it was his intention immediately to do so; the Earl of Selborne states that he had made no such application, and that he had no present intention of doing so, inasmuch as he claimed still to be the duly elected Member for West Edinburgh; Mr. Speaker then inquires of the Noble Lord to withdraw below the Bar until the House had come to a decision on his claim, and he withdrew accordingly; Motion, That Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new Writ for the election of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Edinburgh (West Division), in the room of the Honourable William Waldegrave Palmer, commonly called Viscount Walmersley, now Earl of Selborne, and withdrawn, 109. Motion, That Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new Writ for the election of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Edinburgh (West Division), in the room of the Honourable William Waldegrave Palmer, commonly called Viscount Walmersley, now Earl of Selborne, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom; Debate arising, Motion, That the Debate be adjourned, and negatived, on Division; original Question proposed; Closure claimed, and assent withheld; Debate resumed, and Question agreed to, and Order accordingly; CL. 223. See Earlom of Selborne.

VII. Motions Withdrawn, Negatived, or Superseded, relative to Elections:

Attercliffe Division Writ:

298. [1894.] Notice taken, That the Motion for a New Writ for the Attercliffe Division of Sheffield, made and agreed to on Tuesday last, had been grounded on the acceptance of the Office of Steward of the Chiltern Hundreds by the Honourable Bernard Codrington; whereas he, having succeeded to a Peerage on the death of his father, was then the second Baron Coleridge; and had already ceased to be a Member of this House. Motion, That a Select Committee be appointed to inquire into the circumstances under which the New Writ for the Attercliffe Division was granted on Tuesday, 26th June, and into the Law and Practice of this House relating to the Vacation of Seats of Members who succeed to Peerages; Withdrawn; CXLIX. 250.

299. [1894.] Notice taken, That the Motion for a New Writ for the Attercliffe Division of Sheffield, made and agreed to on Tuesday last, had been grounded on the acceptance of the Office of Steward of the Chiltern Hundreds by the Honourable Bernard Codrington; whereas he, having succeeded to a Peerage on the death of his father, was then the second Baron Coleridge; and had already ceased to be a Member of this House. Motion, That a Select Committee be appointed to inquire into the circumstances under which the New Writ for the Attercliffe Division was granted on Tuesday, 26th June, and into the Law and Practice of this House relating to the Vacation of Seats of Members who succeed to Peerages; Withdrawn; CXLIX. 250.

House of Commons (Vacating of Seats):

300. Motion, That a Select Committee be appointed to inquire and report on the circumstances attending the issue of the Writ for the Attercliffe Division of Sheffield on the 25th Interference of Peers at Elections. All such persons as shall have been wilfully concerned in such endeavours so to be, by Bribery, or any other corrupt practices, to influence the election of any Member to serve for the Commons in Parliament in the selection of a Candidate, or by himself, or any others, be proposed to be elected; or for any consecutively where such Peer shall appear as a Candidate, or by Member to serve in Parliament.-Resolved, That it is a high question upon the Return for that place; and if anything shall come in question touching the Return or Election of any Member to represent the County of Lancaster (Southport Division) in the Commons, a Select Committee be appointed to inquire into such alleged breach of Privilege; Withdrawn; CLIV. 170.

Interference of Peers in the election of a Candidate for Oxford University. 301. Complainant made by Mr. James Lowther, Member for the Thanet Division of Kent, that the Duke of Devonshire and the Lord Bishop of Liverpool had concerned themselves in the Election of a Member to the House of Commons for the Borough of Great Britain; to concern himself in the Election of any Member to serve in Parliament in the selection of a Candidate to fill the vacancy in the representation of the University of Oxford; Motion, That, it having been represented to this House that the Lord High Chancellor and other Lords of Parliament did infringe the liberties and privileges of this House by concerning themselves in the election of a Member to represent the University of Oxford in the Commons, a Select Committee be appointed to inquire into such alleged breach of Privilege; Withdrawn; CLIV. 194.

Interference of Peers in the Election for the Southport Division of Lancashire. 302. Complainant made by Mr. James Lowther, Member for the Thanet Division of Kent, That the Duke of Devonshire and the Lord Bishop of Liverpool had concerned themselves in the Election of a Member to the House of Commons for the County of Lancaster (Southport Division); Motion, That, it having been represented to this House that the Duke of Devonshire and the Lord Bishop of Liverpool did severally infringe the liberties and privileges of this House by concerning themselves in the Election of a Member to represent the County of Lancaster (Southport Division) in the Commons, a Select Committee be appointed to inquire into the said alleged breach of Privilege; and Question negatived, on Division; CLIV. 254.

VIII. Orders, Resolutions, and Incidental Proceedings.

305. [1890-91.] Ordered, That all Members who are returned for two or more places in any part of the United Kingdom do make their election for which of the places they will serve, within one week after it shall appear that there is no question as to the election at that place; and if anything shall come in question touching the Return or Election of any Member, he is to withdraw during the time the matter is in debate; and that all Members returned upon double Returns do withdraw till their Returns are determined.—Resolved, That no Peer of the Realm, except such Peers of Ireland as shall for the time being be actually elected, and shall not have declined to serve, for any County, City, or Borough of Great Britain, hath any right to give his vote in the Election of any Member to serve in Parliament.—Resolved, That it is a high infringement of the liberties and privileges of the Commons of the United Kingdom for any Lord of Parliament, or other Peer or Peerage, not being a Peer of Ireland at the time elected, and not having declined to serve for any County, City, or Borough of Great Britain, to concern himself in the Election of Members to serve for the Commons in Parliament, except only any Peer of Ireland, at such elections in Great Britain respectively where such Peer shall appear as a Candidate, or by himself, or any others, be proposed to be elected; or for any Lord Lieutenant or Governor of any County to avail himself of any authority derived from his Commission, to influence the Election of any Member to serve for the Commons in Parliament.—Resolved, That it shall appear that any person hath been elected or returned a Member of this House, or endeavoured so to be, by Bribery, or any other corrupt practices, this House will proceed with the utmost severity against all such persons as shall have been wilfully concerned in such Bribery or other corrupt practices; CXLVI. 4.—[1892, Sec. I.]; CXLVII. 413.—[1890-91]; CXLVIII. 7.

306. Sessionsal Order regarding Interference of Peers at Elections; agreed to, on Division; [1897]; CLIV. 3.—[1898]; CXLIV. 5.—[1898]; CLIV. 4.—[1899]; Amendment proposed, and, on Divison, not made; [1899]; CLIV. 4.—[1899]; Amendment Motion withdrawn; CLVIII. 77.

300. [1890-91.] Motion, That, in the opinion of this House, it is needful to amend and simplify the Laws relating to the Qualification and Registration of Parliamentary Electors; and especially to provide (a) that no person shall be permitted to vote in more than one electoral area during the continuance of one and the same register; (b) that time of qualification shall be reduced to not more than three months; (c) that registration superintendents shall be appointed who shall be officially responsible for superintending the preparation of accurate Lists of Voters; Amendment proposed, and, on Division, made; Question proposed, That the words " whilst recognising the desirability of amending the present system of the registration of voters, this House is of opinion that no alteration of the present Laws regulating the qualification of voters can be considered which does not at the same time provide that the different parts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland shall be represented proportionately to their population," be added to the word " That " in the Main Question; Debate setting; and it being Midnight, the Debate stood adjourned; CXLVII. 80.

303. [1890-91.] Motion, That, in the opinion of this House, it is needful to amend and simplify the Laws relating to the Qualification and Registration of Parliamentary Electors; and especially to provide (a) that no person shall be permitted to vote in more than one electoral area during the continuance of one and the same register; (b) that time of qualification shall be reduced to not more than three months; (c) that registration superintendents shall be appointed who shall be officially responsible for superintending the preparation of accurate Lists of Voters; Amendment proposed, and, on Division, made; Question proposed, That the words " whilst recognising the desirability of amending the present system of the registration of voters, this House is of opinion that no alteration of the present Laws regulating the qualification of voters can be considered which does not at the same time provide that the different parts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland shall be represented proportionately to their population," be added to the word " That " in the Main Question; Debate setting; and it being Midnight, the Debate stood adjourned; CXLVII. 120.

Parliamentary Franchise:

304. [1890-94.] Motion, That there exist serious disparities in the representation in Parliament of the people of the United Kingdom; that these disparities are of such a nature and extent as to involve the danger of the will of the Nation being misrepresented and possibly controverted by the decisions of the House of Commons, as at present constituted; and that therefore such disparities should forthwith be examined into by an impartial Committee or Commission, and remediated; Amendment proposed to leave out from the word " That," to the end of the Question, in order to add the words " whilst deploving the reference of the subject of Redistribution of Seats to a Select Committee or Royal Commission, this House is of opinion that the great irregularities in electoral powers ever which still exist between Constituencies deserve the attention of Her Majesty's Government, with a view to legislation in a future Session if general agreement can be arrived at;" Amendment and Motion withdrawn; CXLVIII. 77.
