Sir John Pakington reported from the Committee appointed to draw up Reasons, to be offered to the Lords at a Conference, for disagreeing to certain Amendments made by their Lordships to the Juvenile Offenders Bill; That they had drawn up Reasons accordingly; which they had directed him to report, as follow:

The Commons agree to the Amendments made by the Lords, as far as Pr. 2. 1, 22.
The Commons propose to amend the Amendment in Pr. 2. 1, 22., by inserting in Fo. 1. 1. 14. after the words "hard labour" the words "for any term not exceeding Three calendar months."

The Commons agree to the Amendments, as far as Clause (B.)

The Commons agree to the Amendments as far as Clause (B.) for the following reasons:

Because considering the very trifling nature of the offences which will generally be the subjects of proceedings under the Bill, it is considered that such a Clause might operate too severely, and that therefore no convictions under the Bill ought to have the effect which proof of a previous conviction of felony now has; and because the omission of this Clause is not likely in any manner to impede the due administration of justice, inasmuch as magistrates will probably always exercise, in cases of hardened offenders, that power of committing for trial by jury, as heretofore, which, under the Bill, they will in all cases possess.

The Commons agree to the other Amendments to the Bill.

The said Reasons, being read a second time, were agreed to.

Ordered, That a Conference be desired with the Lords, upon the subject-matter of the Amendments made by their Lordships to the said Bill: And that Sir John Pakington do go to the Lords, and desire the said conference.

Resolved, That provision be made out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the issue of any Sum, not exceeding Three hundred thousand pounds, to be advanced, by way of Loan, on the security of Rates, to be levied in Ireland, to the Relief Commissioners appointed in pursuance of an Act of the present Session, for the temporary Relief of Destitute Persons in Ireland.

Resolution to be reported.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair; and Mr. Greene reported, That the Committee had come to a Resolution.

Ordered, That the Report be received To-morrow.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee, to consider of exequating the and Draining Counties or Districts now liable to the Repayment of Sums advanced out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the credit of Prebends for Public Works in Ireland, made for the Relief of Distress, from a portion thereof; of authorizing the transfer of persons who may be charged under this Bill for that right of challenge which they can now exercise with respect to any jurymen in whose impartiality they may not feel confidence.

Because these opinions have received the sanction of the Committee of the Lords, which has recently inquired into the execution of the Criminal Law, especially respecting juvenile offenders and transportation, and in the Report of that Committee it is recommended that magistrates should exercise summary power in certain cases, "with the previous consent of the parties themselves to submit to such tribunal."

2. Resolved, That the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury be authorized to direct the Commissioners of Public Works in England to transfer to the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, out of the Funds standing to the account of the said Commissioners of Public Works in England, any Sum not exceeding One hundred and twenty thousand pounds, to be applied by the said Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland for making Loans under the provisions of any of the Acts authorizing the said Commissioners to make Advances for the extension and promotion of Drainage and other Works of Public utility in Ireland.

3. Resolved, That the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury be authorized to direct the issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, of any Sum not exceeding Two hundred and fifty thousand pounds, to be applied by the said Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland for making Loans under the provisions of any of the Acts authorizing the said Commissioners to make Advances for the extension and promotion of Drainage and other Works of Public utility in Ireland.

rooms built by him at Edinburgh, he was cited to attend Committees of the House in 1842 when one of those Committees the Petitioner expressed his belief that the value of the poor man's income might be doubled by the introduction of measures that would make more generally known the immediate evils to which human life is exposed, and the means by which they might be counteracted; that in another

Committee the views advocated by the Petitioner led to those alterations in the acoustic, warming and ventilating apparatus that have been sustained without change by the House for a period of 11 years; that thousands of professional persons from all parts of the empire, and all parts of the globe, have inspected the Petitioner's plans, and in numerous instances have adopted his principles, which he believes to be in process of general application ; that, notwithstanding this, the Petitioner has been deprived of all that is most valuable in his appointment at the Houses of Parliament, and, so far as he acts at present, is compelled in self-defence to sus-tain a continual protest against the system adopted in reference to him ; that the Petitioner, confiding in the justice of his cause and in the soundness of the principles and practice he has advocated, awaits with confidence the period when official documents shall prove to the House the true state of the case in reference to his plans; that, in the meantime, the Petitioner, satisfied that the general progress of his plans at the Houses of Parliament and elsewhere, has been greatly injured and impeded by causes which it is in the power of the House to prevent, prays that the following documents may be laid on the table of the House :

1. All correspondence entered into between the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, the Architect, and the Petitioner, since September last, when the their referring to the New Houses of Parliament; and generally, or to the New House of Commons, in particular, including also all special letters between the Chief Commissioners and the Petitioner, or between the Secretary to the Chief Commissioner and the Petitioner, since September 1846; 2. The original notes of evidence taken by Mr. Philip Hardie, Esq., during the progress of the reference appointed by the Viscount Canning, when the referees decided that they would not have reporters present, the Petitioner having attended the reference solely under the pledge that he should have an opportunity of reviewing these notes, and be provided with a copy of them (the pledge of the referees is adverted to in the report of the committee which was ordered before the House, though the pledge has never been fulfilled); 3. The answer transmitted by the Petitioner to a document issued by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, on the 26th December 1845, and in juncto-position with it (that the difference may be seen) the " Objections by Dr.

Reid," that appear in page 46, of the Minutes of Evidence laid before the Select Committee on Westminster Bridge and the New Palace; the Petitioner has reason to believe that nothing has proved so deeply injurious to him as the impression that the statement that appears in the place referred to, under the title of " Objections by Dr. Reid," formed his answer to the Commissioners; 4. A paper, dated 19th April 1845, and titled, " Minutes of Conversation," which was transmitted by the Architect to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, and the Petitioner's reply thereto when informed of it about two months afterwards, viz. his letter addressed to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, in 1846 ; 5. A copy of the evidence given by the Petitioner before a Committee of the House of Peers on the 11th May 1846, upwards of three pages of the Petitioner's evidence not being printed in a document laid before the house, while the evidence of the Architect appears in full in the same paper (No. 719, Session 1846). Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table; and be printed.

Mr. Ward presented, pursuant to Order,—Copy Greenwich

Sir George Grey reported from the Committee Poor Laws appointed to draw up Reasons, to be offered to the Administration Bill. The Commons disagree to the omission of Clause (A.) added by way of Rider to the Bill, for the following Reason:

Because poor persons above the age of sixty years are very generally relieved out of the workhouse; and there is not therefore reason to apprehend any serious practical inconvenience from giving them accommodation in the workhouse without the separation which is indispensable in the case of able-bodied persons.

The said Reason, being read a second time, was agreed to.

Ordered, That a Conference be desired with the Lords, upon the subject-matter of the Amendments made by their Lordships to the Poor Laws Administration Bill; That they had drawn up a Reason accordingly, which they had directed him to report; and the same was read, as followeth:

The Commons disagree to the omission of Clause (A.) added by way of Rider to the Bill, for the following Reason:

Ordered, That the Account relative to New Churches, which was presented yesterday, be printed.

Ordered, That the Paper relative to the College of Surgeons, which was presented yesterday, be printed.
The Commons disagree to Clause (B.) for the following Reasons:

The Commons conceive it would be impolitic to interfere with the Navigation Laws at present, because they are now under consideration of a Select Committee.

Because the Amendment was carried into effect, Foreign Ships would much more easily evade it than British ships.

Because it must inevitably raise the cost of the passage, and check emigration at the time it is desirable to promote it.

Because if any vessels can sail with an under complection of men, vessels carrying passengers may safely be allowed to do so, in such as among the passengers will be found many to assist the crew in any emergency.

Because the Commons see no reason why British vessels should be compelled to take more hands, under any circumstances, than the American packet ships, which are admitted on all hands to be safe and well-manned vessels.

The Commons agree to Clause (C.):—

Sir George Grey reported, That having been with the Lords, to desire a Conference on the subject-matter of the Amendments made by their Lordships to the Poor Laws Administration Bill, the Lords do agree to a Conference, and appoint the same immediately in the Royal Gallery.

Sir George Grey reported, That the Managers had been at the Conference, which was managed on the part of the Lords by Earl Grey; and that they had delivered the Reasons for disagreeing to the said Amendment, and had left the Bill, and Amendments, with their Lordships.

The Reasons for disagreeing to one of the Amendments made by the Lords to the Passengers Act Amendment Bill, being read a second time, were agreed to.

After which, Her Majesty was pleased to make Her Majesty’s most gracious Speech from the Throne to both Houses. of foreign or internal trade as a mode of relieving distress: I feel assured that such measures are gene-really ineffectual, and, in some cases, aggravate the evils for the alleviation of which they are adopted.
I cordially approve of the acts of large and liberal bounty by which you have assuaged the sufferings of My Irish subjects. I have also readily given My sanction to a law to make better provision for the permanent Relief of the destitute in Ireland. I have likewise given My Assent to various Bills calculated to promote the agriculture and develop the industry of that portion of the United Kingdom.
My attention shall be directed to such further meaures as may be conducive to those salutary purposes.

My relations with Foreign Powers continue to inspire Me with confidence in the maintenance of Peace.

It has afforded Me great satisfaction to find that the measures which, in concert with the King of the French, the Queen of Spain and the Queen of Portugal, I have taken for the pacification of Portugal, have been attended with success, and that the Civil War which for many months had afflicted that Country has at last been brought to a bloodless termination.

I indulge the hope that future differences between political parties in that Country may be settled without an appeal to arms.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons, I thank you for your willingness in granting Me the necessary Supplies; they shall be applied with due care and economy to the Public Service.

My Lords and Gentlemen,
I am happy to inform you, that notwithstanding the high price of food, the Revenue has, up to the present time, been more productive than I had reason to anticipate. The increased use of articles of general consumption has chiefly contributed to this result. The Revenue derived from Sugar, especially, has been greatly augmented by the removal of the prohibitory Duties on Foreign Sugar.

The various Grants which you have made for Education in the United Kingdom will, I trust, be conducive to the religious and moral improvement of My people.

My Lords and Gentlemen,
I think proper to inform you that it is My intention immediately to dissolve the present Parliament.

I rely with confidence on the loyalty to the Throne and attachment to the free institutions of this Country which animate the great body of My people. I join with them in supplications to Almighty God, that the dearth by which we have been afflicted may, by the Divine blessing, be converted into cheapness and plenty.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by Her Majesty's Parliament Command, said:

My Lords and Gentlemen,
It is Her Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, That this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the 21st day of September next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the 21st day of September next.
